REPORTS

REPORT OF AREA COUNCIL

I am happy to make this first report of the Area Council. This has been an experimental year for the Area Council. All the directors were new in their field. They had no precedents to guide them. They had to take one step at a time and then study and evaluate what had been done before going further. We have made some definite progress and have all learned many things pertaining to our jobs which we did not know before.

The most serious blow to the work of the Area Council during the year was the loss of Tom Pitt, the Associate Director in charge of Stewardship and Lay Activities. He was doing such a splendid job and, no matter who takes his place, there will be a lag in this field which will take time to make up. However, I am happy to introduce to this conference a man whom I think will go a long way in making up for this loss.

According to the charter under which we operate, the Area Council has no program of its own. It endeavors to promote the program of every Board, Commission, Committee and other agency of the Louisiana Annual Conference. To make this job easier, some member of the Area Council staff has been elected executive secretary of each of the major Boards of the Conference. This set-up gives us direct entree to all the Boards and facilitates our work a great deal. We earnestly solicit the help of all the agencies of the Conference in carrying out the responsibility which the Conference has asked us to assume.

Before his untimely death, Mr. Pitt had attended all the general meetings and conferences which pertained to his work and had gained much valuable information. He held successful Lay Retreats in every district, Lay Speaking Workshops and every Member Visitation Workshops. As a matter of fact, he had a splendid lay program in operation in the Conference. Other members of the staff endeavored to carry on his work until the end of the Conference year. We are happy that his successor has been named.

The Reverend K. G. Rorie, Associate Director, has had a busy year. Last summer he attended all the Jurisdictional and General Conference meetings held in the field of Missions and Evangelism. He learned much which has made it possible for him to be helpful to the Conference Boards of Missions and Evangelism in carrying out their programs. He has been in every district several times to conduct workshops and conferences in the field of Missions and Evangelism. Next year he will have the additional responsibility for youth work in the Conference. He has preached when ever he has been invited and has been able to work it into his schedule. He has held many conferences with local churches on problems of Evangelism and Missions. As the Executive Secretary of the Board of Education, the Area Director has been busy trying to get the new Children's Division literature before the churches of the Louisiana Annual Conference. We have been in all eight districts three times for workshops on curriculum and have three or four more meetings in each district during the months of July and August. The entire staff of the Area Council was in each district for a planning workshop during the month of April, and the Area Council will have a comprehensive calendar of events ready for distribution to every church at Conference time. We trust that this effort will be fruitful in bringing about a better coordinated program for the Louisiana Conference. The Area Director was in Chicago for two weeks this past November, attending the National Conference on Christian Education with special sessions for new Executive Secretaries of Boards of Education. He also attended the Leadership School, at Mt. Sequoyah, for two weeks, last July. He has had the privilege of preaching in a number of churches over the Conference as well as being the speaker for several appreciation banquets and Worker's Conferences in local churches. He is always available for duty that will further the work of the Kingdom of God in the Louisiana Conference. He has accepted responsibility in the field of Christian Education in the Provisional Council of Churches in Louisiana, and has been elected First Vice President of the Louisiana Moral and Civic Foundation, as well as membership on the Executive Board of the Norwela Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Every member of the Area Council staff expresses thanks for all the cooperation we have had from our Bishop, District Superintendents, the District Directors, preachers, and laymen all over our Conference. We want to be of service, so call on us if you want help and we will do our best to respond.

Respectfully submitted,

J. HENRY BOWDON Sr., Area Director

BOARD OF EDUCATIONReport No. 1*Centenary College

In submitting my 19th and last report to the Conference, as president of Centenary College, I see no need in attempting to give a review of the past 19 years. Yearly reports have been given on the floor of the Conference and, over a period of years, we have had the pleasure of entertaining the Conference at its annual meetings. Consequently, this report covers only the 1963-64 academic year.

In the fall of 1963 our full-time enrollment totaled 803 as against 741 in the fall of the previous year. In addition to this, we had 836 special students. If we also include summer school enrollment we find that during the academic year which closed on May 31, 1964, 2,557 persons took work at Centenary College as compared with 2,465 persons the previous year.

Of the 803 full-time students enrolled in the fall of 1963, 415 were men and 388 were women. Of these, 355 were in the dormitories.

Under the very able direction of Dean Bond Fleming, our academic program has continued to move forward. Centenary has entered a new era of interest in academic excellence. This is reflected in the activities of both the faculty and the student body. Today, we have a new enthusiasm in the faculty for a higher standard of academic work, and this new spirit has spread to our student body. Three of our 1964 graduates received Woodrow Wilson Fellowships, and one a Fullbright Scholarship. A much larger group than ever before has received assistantships in various universities to pursue their graduate work.

The building program moved forward, with the opening in September, 1963, of the Pierce Cline Memorial Dormitory for Men. This is a beautiful dormitory which has enabled our men students to see that they were not wholly neglected in our building program.

The dedication of the Ed E. Hurley Memorial Music Building on Sunday, April 19, 1964, provided a building badly needed at Centenary over a long period of time. This stands as one of the most beautiful buildings on the Centenary campus, and one which will enable our Department of Music to move forward in a field which is of great interest to the many music lovers of this area. We are most grateful to Mrs. Hurley, a member of our Board of Trustees, for this magnificent gift.

Another fine addition during the year was the Reginald Henry Hargrove Memorial Shell, the gift of Mrs. R. H. Hargrove, in memory of her husband. Mr. Hargrove was a member of our Board of Trustees at the time of his death in January, 1954. This Shell was dedicated on Easter morning, March 29, 1964. It will add much to the popular summer concerts during June and July. It also was used for our Commencement Exercises on Sunday, May 31, of this year. Our very deep appreciation goes to Mrs. Hargrove for this fine gift.

Centenary is now engaged in the largest financial campaign in its history. The first part of this campaign has as its goal the raising of $1.5 million in the Shreveport Area. The remaining $1 million will be the objective of the second part of this campaign to be conducted in the Conference outside of the Shreveport Area this coming fall. Bishop Walton is serving as the general chairman for the entire campaign.

Religious activities during the year have been many and varied. The Thursday morning chapel programs have been well planned. Rev. Robert Ed Taylor, minister to the campus, reports many interesting activities on the part of the Inter-faith Council, stating that "A spirit of real brotherhood and a consciousness of our oneness in Christ have characterized our inter-faith activities this year." He also reports that " . . . one of the most effective events in the religious life of the campus was 'Campus Conversations', an organization of discussion groups under the sponsorship of the Inter-faith Council." These discussion groups covered many subjects of vital interest to the student body.

The Faculty Christian Fellowship held its regional meeting last June at Texas Wesleyan College in Fort Worth. Thirteen members of our faculty and staff attended. This was the largest attendance from any one school in the Southwest, with the exception of Texas Wesleyan, the host. Dr. Woodrow W. Pate, professor of economics on our faculty, is the chairman of this group; and the executive secretary is Robert Ed Taylor, minister to our campus. One of our faculty representatives to the Conference reported, "It is a most thrilling experience to see faculty members, laymen for the most part, give personal time and effort to improve themselves in this program of religion and higher education." I am pleased to report that Mrs. L. G. Thomas of Shreveport has donated the sum of $3,000 to Centenary in memory of her late husband. The income from this $3,000 investment is to be used to cover the travel expenses of members of our faculty to this important Faculty Conference each year.

Added emphasis to our religious program both inside and outside of the college has been given this year by the continued fine work of the Centenary College Choir under the direction of Dr. A.

C. Voran. And of special importance has been the outstanding work of Mr. and Mrs. Corey in our Department of Speech and Dramatics. Their productions, "The Book of Job" and "Romans by St. Paul", have excited both national and international interest and admiration. Undoubtedly, you have noticed the fine publicity given these productions in "Together" magazine and other national productions. This fall the Coreys will take these productions to the New York World's Fair, to England and to South Africa. It is fine to have Centenary College recognized in this way in the field of religious drama.

The religious preference of our students, as given this past fall, were as follows:

Methodists	335	Lutherans	10
Baptists	225	Church of Christ	9
Episcopalians	103	Pentecostal	9
Catholics	94	Jewish	7
Presbyterians	84	All others	22
Disciples	16	No preference	34

The number of students preparing for full-time church related vocations was as follows:

Methodist	54	Catholic	2
Baptist	10	Episcopal	2
Presbyterian	2

Adding much to the total religious program on the campus this year was the series of lectures given by Dr. Wallace Hamilton. It was the feeling both of the faculty and the student body that this was one of the best series of lectures under the Willson Lectureship Program. Again, we are greatly indebted to Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Willson of Floydada, Texas, for making this possible.

The Board of Trustees, through the Board of Education, nominates to the Conference for an additional term of three years the following members of the Board whose terms expire in 1964:

G. M. Anderson	D. L. Dykes, Jr.
Lamar Baker	James T. Harris
Charles T. Beaird	A. J. Hodges
J. Henry Bowdon	Mrs. Ed E. Hurley
S. Perry Brown	G. W. James
Milton Crow	John L. Scales, Sr.

Edwin F. Whited

Also nominated as new members of the Board, with terms to expire in 1965, are:

Charles D. Knight, Shreveport
 Cecil E. Ramey, Jr., Shreveport
 Dale Waller, Shreveport

Additional new nominations for those to be placed in the group whose terms expire in 1967 are the following:

Dana Dawson, Jr., Baton Rouge
Tom Matheny, Hammond
Albert Sklar, Shreveport

It is also requested that the Bishop re-appoint to the College all ministers who served at the College during the year that has just closed.

The Commencement Exercises were held on Sunday, May 31, Rev. Barry Bailey gave the Baccalaureate Sermon at 9:00 a.m., and I was the speaker at the graduating exercises at 8:00 p.m. We had the pleasure of having Bishop Walton with us for both of these occasions.

I cannot close this, my final report to the Conference, without expressing a word of deep appreciation and sincere gratitude to each and every member of the Conference, and each and every Methodist throughout the state of Louisiana who in any way has contributed anything to the progress of Centenary College during my tenure as president. The wonderful things which have happened during these years for the improvement of the physical plant and the strengthening of the academic program at so many points could not have happened without the loyalty and generous giving of many hundreds of persons. This support has enabled many of the dreams which I had in 1945 for the future of Centenary College to come true. Of course, all of those dreams have not yet reached fulfillment, but we certainly are on our way to greater days. Under the able leadership of Dr. Jack Stauffer Wilkes, I feel confident that a more complete fulfillment of our plans and dreams will be attained.

Respectfully submitted,
JOE J. MICKLE

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Report No. 2

Section 1 — Condensed Report

The outline of the on-going program of Christian Education in the Conference and in the districts which was left for our guidance by Dr. Bentley Sloane, has been followed as closely as possible in our busy schedule during 1963-64. Most of the year-to-year activities have been carried out, and a good many new enterprises which were brought up for the first time during this conference year have been planned and held.

Every district in the Conference held leadership schools during this year. Some of the training in local churches was not in the form of a regular leadership class or school in which formal credit is offered; however, this type of leadership training has been encouraged as a part of the on-going Christian Education program of the church. To date, the following schools have been held (or are in progress) during 1963-64:

Schools	Churches	Instructors	Enrolled	Credits	Churches Involved
20	37	54	1,480	873	226

We have scheduled more courses in Bible this year than ever recorded. For the first time, we have scheduled (is in progress) a course on Lay Theology with Dean Bond Fleming teaching the course. Enrollment of this course is approximately one hundred. The course is being taught on Centenary College campus.

Pastors' School was one of the best we have ever had. The attendance was very good, the instructors were of the highest type, and Bishop Aubrey G. Walton and Bishop Eugene Slater brought inspiration we seldom are privileged to enjoy at one great meeting.

The camping program was favorably reported this year. We held the following camps during 1963:

Camps	Campers	Adult Leaders
Junior Camps	11	740
Junior High Camps	8	519
Senior High Institutes	2	95
Older Adult Camps	2
(6 districts involved)		72
Family Camp	1	53
Senior High Travel Camp..	1	17
Youth Mission Tour	1	21 Youth
Enterprises	26	1,517

A Children's Workers' Conference was held at Bunkie with Miss Shiela Nuttall in charge. This conference was well attended, Four Nursery Workers' Conferences, with Miss Vera Zimmerman of the General Board staff as resource leader, were held during October. There were 86 workers present and 32 churches represented. In connection with these workshops, Miss Zimmerman held a Workshop for Workers in Week-day Nursery Schools and Kindergartens. Twenty-nine workers registered and eleven churches were represented.

The Board of Education has cooperated with the Louisiana Provisional Council of Churches in every way it could. The Executive Secretary has accepted membership on the Division of Christian Education of which the Rev. George H. Ricks is the Chairman. Miss Shiela Nuttall, Conference Director of Children's Work, presented our new "Christian Studies for Methodist Children" to the Curriculum Conference of the Provisional Louisiana Council of Churches held in New Orleans on April 20.

Curriculum Workshops on the new literature for children have been held in every district with good representation in each district. Every effort is being made by the Executive Secretary and the Conference Director of Children's Work to bring the necessary information to the leaders in every local church who are involved in the use of the new literature for the Children's Division. The final Workshops will be held in every district during July and August, 1964.

Youth Work has been carried forward under the direction of Rev. Lawrence Gilbert, Conference Director of Youth Work. Workshops, planning sessions, and institutes have been held throughout the Conference. M.Y.F. Assembly was among the best we have ever held at Centenary College.

Adult Work, under the direction of Rev. George Pearce, Jr., has made progress.

More detailed reports on Youth and Adult Work will be given at Annual Conference.

The Executive Secretary, Conference Director of Children's Work, and Conference Director of Youth Work attended leadership enterprises at Mt. Sequoyah last summer. Louisiana was well represented in the Leadership-Laboratory schools. Twenty-two adults and a number of children attended the Leadership-Laboratory schools, and eight persons registered for the Church School Administrators' Conference.

Rev. Lawrence Gilbert and Miss Shiela Nuttall attended the Laboratory Administrators' Workshop, held in Dallas, Texas, April 21 and 22.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Report No. 2

Section 2 — Methodist Student Movement

The Louisiana Methodist Student Movement is composed of fifteen units ministering under the auspices of the Methodist Church in public, private, and church-related institutions of higher learning throughout the state. Twelve of these fifteen units are related to the Board of Education of the Louisiana Annual Conference, South Central Jurisdiction. The remaining three units are related to the board of Education of the Louisiana Annual Conference, Central Jurisdiction.

Of these fifteen units, eight are classified as Accredited Wesley Foundations, having met the requirements of the Commission on Standards as authorized by the General Conference of the Methodist Church. These eight are: Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, Louisiana State University (Baton Rouge), McNeese State College, Northeast Louisiana State College, Northwestern State College, Southeastern Louisiana College, Tulane University, and the University of Southwestern Louisiana. Two of the units, at Centenary College and at Dillard University, are located at church-related institutions and therefore will not be eligible for accreditation as Wesley Foundations. The remaining five units, at Grambling College, Louisiana State University at Alexandria, Louisiana State University in New Orleans, Nicholls State College, and Southern University, are growing in program and participation, but it will be several years before the requirements for accreditation will have been met.

The accumulated 1963-64 total enrollments in the twelve colleges and universities related to this annual conference was 50,938. Of this number 6,801, or approximately 13.5% were listed as Methodist preference students. In addition to students, approximately 600 Methodist faculty members and uncounted numbers of Methodist staff employees serve these institutions. All of these persons, students, faculty and staff alike, are the concern of our Methodist campus ministers. The academic communities of our state constitute their parishes. Although their ministries, in many ways, are specialized, they serve nevertheless in the ministry of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Wesley Foundation Directors are not merely program coordinators or chaperones for student activities. They are ministers, clergymen, pastors, and priests in the full meanings of these terms. In its recent session, the General Conference recognized the truth of this assertion when it directed that the term "director", when it referred to ordained Wesley Foundation and Methodist Student Movement personnel in campus situations, be henceforth changed to "campus minister."

We who have chosen to fulfill our ministries in the academic community are gratified by this increased recognition of the validity of our specialized vocation. The campus ministry in Louisiana has reached a remarkable maturity, in the sense of stability and commitment on the part of its personnel. Our nine campus ministers are entering their third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, or eighth years in their present appointments. In other words, our Conference is now recognizing the significance of this phase of the church's ministry and is appointing men who are committed to the work of the church in academic communities and who will stay in their positions long enough to perform an effective ministry. This is one of the strengths of the campus ministry in Louisiana.

Other strong points can be reported. During the 1963-64 Conference year, our campus ministry staff completed a year-long, self-study. This intra-unit study was designed to gather and assimilate information in three essential areas: (1) capital assets and needs, (2) current operating expenses and funds, and (3) program and activities. Out of this self-study, several important points can be emphasized.

The study made it clear that Louisiana has done and is continuing to do an outstanding job in the construction and maintenance of student center buildings. Two new permanent student center buildings, at Northwestern State College in Natchitoches, and Northeast Louisiana State College in Monroe, were completed during the 1963-64 Conference year. These buildings were carefully and beautifully designed and will greatly enhance our student center facilities. Permanent facilities are now in use at six of our eight standard Wesley Foundations, namely, Louisiana Tech, McNeese, Northeast, Northwestern, Southeastern, and USL. Temporary buildings are in use at LSU and Tulane, both of which are engaged in building programs. The total value of our present student center buildings is approximately $580,000. The additional value of Wesley Foundation parsonages, property, and other capital assets is estimated at $230,000, making a total valuation of Wesley Foundation capital assets of $810,000. Current indebtedness on these assets comes to approximately $250,000. In addition to LSU and Tulane, there will undoubtedly be needs in the future for additional student center facilities at our younger institutions, such as Nicholls State College, LSU at Alexandria and LSU in New Orleans. However, for the 1964-68 Quadrennium, assuming that the building programs at LSU and Tulane will be successfully completed, our state will rank high throughout Methodism in its provisions for student center facilities.

Another strength evidenced in the analysis of the self-study relates to student center program and activities. The essential three thrusts vital to the contemporary church's ministry to college students receive strong emphasis in all of our MSM units. These thrusts are worship, study, and fellowship. The campus ministry in each of our institutions has, of course, developed according to the needs of the respective campus and the talents and interests of the respective campus ministers. No two programs are exactly alike, nor should they be. In one situation a greater emphasis may be placed upon occasions for social fellowship, while in another situation the program may stress study, discussion and dialogue. Yet all of our MSM personnel have made genuine efforts to provide the essential program and activity directives which will result in a competent and adequate campus ministry. To be sure, improvements in our ministries, both in concept and technique, are needed. To this end, we devote a large part of our yearly campus ministers' retreat, in which we study and discuss ways and means whereby our ministries may be made more effective.

The strong points of our Methodist campus ministry in Louisiana must be tempered with the recognition of our deficiencies. These deficiencies remain essentially the same as those reiterated in the annual report of last year.

(1) Financial Support

Four years ago, the Louisiana Annual Conference adopted the recommendation that our local churches support our Wesley Foundations on the basis of $1 per member. This goal was to have been reached by the close of the 1960-64 Quadrennium. It is now apparent that this goal has not been reached. In fact, although exact figures for the 1963-64 Conference year are not yet available, it is estimated that student work giving during this past year will average only slightly above 58 cents per member. In 1960-61, the giving was 41.1 cts. per member; in 1961-62, 52.2 cts. per member; in 1962-63, 52.9 cts. per member. The original goal of $1.00 per member was not unrealistic, nor was it based on idealistic needs. In the light of the responsibilities faced by each of our Wesley Foundations, our budgets, with the notable exception of the New Orleans District's support of the Tulane Wesley Foundation, are inadequate by standards generally accepted by the Department of College and University Religious Life of the General Board of Education.

What do these inadequacies mean? To cite one example, the LSU Wesley Foundation in Baton Rouge, inadequate financial support precipitated the recent decision of the Foundation's Board of Directors to close the student center buildings from June 1 - September 1, 1964. It was apparent that the anticipated income for 1964-65 would not be sufficient to provide the increased utilities and janitorial services to operate the building during these months. This does not mean that the program and ministry will cease. A full program of summer activities has been planned and will be conducted by the LSU Wesley Foundation's staff, making use of university and local church facilities. The real deprivation will be endured by the Methodist students, who will not be able to use the Methodist student center facilities for study, relaxation, and recreation. Many of the 1,000 Methodist students who will enroll in LSU for the summer session will, undoubtedly, raise questions as to the reasons behind their church's neglect and apathy in so far as its ministry to this vital part of its constituency is concerned.

(2) The Need for Increased Personnel

Increased personnel is seriously needed in two of our Conference programs, i. e., LSU in Baton Rouge and in metropolitan New Orleans. The General Board of Education recommends that an MSM unit have one full-time worker for every 500 Methodist-preference students. LSU's Methodist-preference enrollment will be approximately 2,200 in the approaching fall semester. Yet, on the local level, only one full-time campus minister will be appointed. Fortunately, the LSU Wesley Foundation is one of five Wesley Foundations in the nation to be assigned a seminary intern by the General Board of Education for the 1964-65 academic year. Mr. Wayne Richards, a senior at Drew Theological Seminary, will join the LSU Wesley Foundation staff for one year, with a salary stipend paid by the General Board. The local Foundation, in turn, has agreed to provide the intern's housing and a minimal allowance for expenses. To raise this nominal amount, the Foundation's Board of Directors must conduct an extra-budgeted solicitation, for the 1964-65 budget is insufficient to provide for these increased expenditures.

An equally important need exists in the Metropolitan New Orleans area. With six major colleges and professional schools scattered throughout the city, the Methodist Church maintains only one full-time campus minister. The result is that very little work is conducted at LSU, New Orleans, and none whatsoever at the two large medical schools and in the colleges of nursing. A serious study of the New Orleans situation should be undertaken with the ultimate purpose of establishing a metropolitan campus ministry in this area. The city of New Orleans offers an exciting and unique opportunity for the establishment of a bold and venturesome experiment in the campus ministry. This experiment would be based, not upon several competing Wesley Foundations, but upon one multi-staffed metropolitan ministry to students. Our Conference's determination to rectify the serious deficiencies in its response to the campus ministry in the New Orleans area could lead to the support of an important new pilot program which would be studied and adapted by the Church in comparable situations throughout the country.

It is not unrealistic to expect that increased personnel in the campus ministry eventually will be needed at others of our state institutions. According to a survey released recently by the Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges, the first crop of war babies applying for admission as college freshmen in 1964 has swelled application figures by more than 32 per cent at more than 60 state universities and land grant colleges, and by about one-third at 174 state colleges. This average increase of 32 per cent in applications shows a sharp jump over last year's figures, which on May 1, 1963, were running only 7.4 per cent higher than the previous year. Since state institutions will feel the major share of this boom in college enrollment, not only LSU, but all of Louisiana's state universities and colleges are preparing for significant increases in matriculation. Surely our Church, too, will want to prepare adequately for this enlarged ministry.

Prospects for 1964-1965

At its first session on April 4th, the 1964-65 Council of the Louisiana Methodist Student Movement elected its executive officers. They are: President, James W. Thompson, a Tulane University junior from Tulsa, Oklahoma; Vice President, Ralph Harker, a Centenary College junior from West Monroe; Secretary, Miss Kathy Pittman, an LSU junior from New Orleans; and Treasurer, Miss Karen Lee Mann, a McNeese State College senior from Ft. Knox, Kentucky. Each of these students shows promise of giving exceptional leadership to the Louisiana MSM. A high honor was accorded one of our Louisiana Methodist students last June when Mr. Ronald Lewis, recently graduated from Tulane University, was elected to a two-year term on the National Council of the Methodist Student Movement. In this capacity, Mr. Lewis has brought distinguished leadership to the MSM on a national level.

A large delegation of Louisiana students will attend the MSM's South Central Regional Study and Mission Conference in Wilburton, Oklahoma, in August. Additional plans are underway to send a full quota of students to the National MSM Quadrennial Conference in Lincoln, Nebraska, during the Christmas holidays.

Forty-four Louisiana Methodist students will be involved in voluntary summer service, such as work camps, youth camps, institutional staffs, study seminars, and local church youth and children's work. Two will participate in the MSM's Students-in-Government Project in Washington, D. C. The Rev. Delton Pickering has been selected to lead the MSM's Summer Work-Study Project in Mexico.

The 1964-65 academic year will lead to concentrated interdenominational effort to develop credit courses in religion on the campuses of state-supported colleges and universities. This past spring a consultation was held at Louisiana State University to initiate study and work which eventually would lead to the establishment of such credit courses. In attendance were Protestants and Catholic chaplains, campus ministers, student workers, and faculty representing every state-supported college in Louisiana. Also in attendance were selected members of the State Legislature. As a result of this consultation, the Louisiana Interdenominational Committee for Accreditation of Religious Courses was formulated. The Rev. George Duerson of the Northeast Wesley Foundation, was elected one of the three convenors of this committee. The following proposal is now being placed before the ecclesiastical leadership of all major religious bodies in the state. In general, this proposal has met enthusiastic endorsement. The proposal states:

In consideration of the fact that ethical and religious disciplines are areas of collegiate study, we hereby submit the following proposal with a view to obtaining accreditation in the above stated areas on the campuses of the state-supported universities/colleges of Louisiana.

We respectfully request that religious centers formally connected with respective universities/colleges be hereby authorized to offer courses for credit in the areas of theology, Sacred Scriptures, church history, and the allied disciplines as elective courses which would be fully accredited.

Pursuant to this end, we the undersigned propose to the respective administrations of the state-supported universities/colleges:

1. To submit to the appropriate administrative officials a detailed description of the courses to be offered, including syllabi and textbooks to be used.
2. To accept the scholastic regulations of the department or division involved, including the professional qualifications required of the teaching personnel.
3. To agree that the said instructor accept teaching assignments with their respective university/college administrations without financial remuneration from them.
4. To recommend that classes may be conducted on the property of the respective student centers, but in formal classrooms only.
5. To recommend that all textbooks to be used in these courses are to be privately financed.

Our Louisiana Methodist campus ministry staff is unanimously agreed on the importance and desirability of this proposal. We have long recognized that the most effective and meaningful work with university students is the work conducted for credit in a classroom. It is hoped that the Louisiana Annual Conference, in session here, will give its endorsement to this proposal by accepting this report of your State Director of Campus Ministry. The added weight of the approval of this official Methodist body will greatly enhance the success of this proposal when it is placed before the Louisiana State Board of Education and the LSU Board of Supervisors. To this end and to the general enlargement, both in scope and vitality, of our Church's ministry to Louisiana campuses, I respectfully submit this report.

EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE

Report No. I of Committee

General Items

Bishop and Mrs. Walton moved into the new episcopal residence, located at 4002 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana, on April 8, 1964, and are most pleased with the lovely, but modest home that the Louisiana Annual Conference has provided for their use.

The house was constructed at a cost of $55,000, the lot costing $32,500, while interest, insurance, taxes, clearing the lot, etc. cost $3,155.83, making the total cost of the project $90,655.83. Of this amount the Louisiana Annual Conference invested only $40,000 to date, and $50,000 has been borrowed from the Laurence Eustis Mortgage Corp. of New Orleans, this amount to be paid back by $275.00 which the bishop receives monthly from the Episcopal Housing Allowance, plus $32.05 per month from the Episcopal Residence Committee, of the Annual Conference, the monthly notes being $307.05. The $50,000 was borrowed at 5½% interest for a period of 25 years. The total cost of $90,655.83 is well below the maximum figure of $100,000 voted by the Annual Conference in its Special Session on January 28, 1963.

The furnishings, drapes, carpet and landscaping for the episcopal residence was undertaken by the eight districts under the leadership of our eight District Superintendents. The total cost of these furnishings was $12,304.50, of which $11,490.00 has been raised by the District Superintendents, with some money still outstanding. The Episcopal Residence Committee wishes to thank these eight District Superintendents for their fine assistance in helping to provide for our bishop and his wife.

A special word of commendation also is expressed to the contractors, Francis J. Henry and John Dart, Jr., of Building Coordinators and Consultants, who gave up a $35,000 house for $55,000; to George Saunders, the architect, who rendered his services without charge; to John Dart, Sr., and the firm of Dart and Dart who did much of our legal work without charge; to Thomas Leighton who decorated and furnished the house at less than cost; to James Malette of Rug and Carpet Center, who furnished and laid the carpets at cost; to A. J. Arnold of Crescent Demolishing and Lumber Co., who demolished the old house and cleared the lot at cost; to John Dart, Sr., who helped us to secure the lot at $8,000 below the asking price; to the Stanton Manor Board, who let us have the lot at the reduced figure; to Kirk Moyer Insurance Agency and Walter May Insurance Agency who took care of our insurance needs; to Fidelity Homestead Association who financed our project during construction at 5¾% interest; to Laurence Eustis Mortgage Corp. for loaning us the final $50,000 for 5½% interest; to the Episcopal Residence Committee composed of R. R. Branton, R. Z. Biedenbarn, the late Dan M. Hayes, Francis J. Henry, Floyd B. James, Pendleton Lehde, Henry J. Walther, Jr., Charles N. White, George Williams, and me; the Conference Board of Trustees under the leadership of Dr.

B. C. Taylor, president and of Judge Robert J. O'Neal, secretary; and especially to Bishop and Mrs. Aubrey G. Walton, whose fine cooperative spirit and helpful suggestions made the building of this residence a pleasure.

The Louisiana Annual Conference now owns an Episcopal Residence valued at $108,300 which cost $90,655.83, and which actually cost this Conference only $40,000 to date. In addition we own furnishings, drapes, and carpets valued at $21,450, which cost us only $12,304.50. Detailed Financial Reports on file with Conference Secretary.

We submit with this report a complete financial statement of all expenditures and receipts and hope that you receive this report with the same spirit of enthusiasm and joy with which your Committee undertook and completed the project.

Respectfully submitted,
BENEDICT A. GALLOWAY
Chairman

REPORT OF BOARD OF EVANGELISM

It has been said "The difference between a stumbling block and a stepping stone is the use made of it."

Coming to the end of a quadrennium, your Conference Board of Evangelism looks back to find those things we might use as stepping stones to a deeper spiritual life and greater evangelistic effort in our church. Thus we urge in the future an even greater emphasis of these programs:

1. SPECIAL DAYS—Holy Week, Pentecost, Christmas, Family Week, Youth Week, and others, should be times for spiritual enrichment in our churches. Children and youth classes should be organized for the purpose of training in Christian living and churchmanship.

2. CHURCH SCHOOL — We should give more attention to our Church School as an evangelistic agency, urging our teachers to teach for a verdict of a surrendered life to Jesus and a dedication to His service through our Church.

3. REVIVALS — We should renew our plea for special evangelistic services in every church. We believe our Simultaneous Revivals proved meritorious of a repeat effort. People are drawn closer together and are more consecrated to an endeavor when working simultaneously. The mass revival efforts still hold merit and we strongly urge its use.

4. VISITATION TEAMS — Nothing is so effective as a personal concern. People who have become indifferent to God and His Church receive renewed courage from those concerned enough to visit them. Newcomers feel a sense of pride and devotion to the church and community which demonstrate an interest and concern for them. They are happy to become a part of such a church and community. Those who have never committed themselves to Christ feel the drawing power of Christ's love through those who care enough to call. Let us give special emphasis to this type of evangelism.

5. PRAYER AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH GROUPS—In the small group one experiences more the feeling of personal sharing, interdependence and common need. Together they seek for an answer. In sharing they find release; unitedly they find strength and through study, prayer and meditation, they grow in spiritual understanding. We strongly urge a greater emphasis and more effective use of these groups.

6. SPIRITUAL LIFE RETREATS — Ministers, as laymen, need times of spiritual renewal. Our Camp Brewer retreats have been most meaningful and helpful to many ministers. We have had leaders who have challenged and inspired our souls. Such Christian speakers as Dr. G. Ernest Thomas, Dr. Roy Burkhart, Bishop Aubrey Walton, Dr. Byron Deshler, and Dr. E. Stanley Jones have enriched our lives in these retreats. We recommend this retreat to continue and grow as a means of helping us to be better ministers of Jesus and to our people.

We would give thanks to Bishop Walton for his strong support of the cause of evangelism. His deep concern has been a constant challenge and inspiration. We are also grateful for the leadership Rev. K. G. Rorie, associate director of the Area Council, is giving to the cause of evangelism. We believe that the work of the Board of Evangelism can be more expeditiously carried out by naming the associate director of the Area Council who has responsibility for evangelism, as Conference Secretary of Evangelism, thus eliminating duplication and confusion. Therefore, we nominate to the conference for election as Conference Secretary of Evangelism for the ensuing conference year the Rev. K. G. Rorie.

These are difficult days for those who would be evangelists, for many of the things once held sacred and above question are now subject to doubt among many. The ferment and revolution in society tend to distract the minds of men from the central need of man for Christ. On the one hand we are tempted to defend the status quo rather than accept any new concept of a Christian's place in society, and on the other hand are tempted to think that social change is the total gospel for our day and time.

Our task as evangelists is to proclaim the gospel, for all men, individuals and groups, even for all mankind. Perhaps we need to hear Paul say, "I am determined to know nothing among you except Christ and Him crucified," believing that the concept of divine love as found here will answer the whole of man's need. In our endeavor to be good evangelists for Christ and make real our coveted goal of "No Barren Churches," no church operating in the name of Jesus without winning at least one to Him through profession of faith, we offer this calendar as an evangelistic guide, and urge that the district committee on evangelism take the lead in each district in the implementation of this calendar in full.

FOR THE MINISTRY:

1. South Central Jurisdictional Conference on Evangelism, Mt. Sequoyah, August 10-13, 1964, for District Secretaries of Evangelism and Conference Board officers.

2. Conference Spiritual Life Retreat, Camp Brewer, Oct. 1964.

FOR THE DISTRICT:

1. To organize, as early as possible, a District Committee on Evangelism in every district of our Louisiana Conference.

2. To cooperate with the District Lay Leader and the District Board of Lay Activities in holding district retreats with increased emphasis on deepening spiritual life.

FOR THE LOCAL CHURCH:

1. Plan "Missions to Members" for summer months to encourage regular attendance, personal and family devotions, and a ministry to non-resident members.

2. Jurisdictional Workshop on Evangelism for Local Church Chairmen, Mt. Sequoyah, August 7-9, 1964.

3. Plan revival services for the summer or early fall months.

4. Observe World-Wide Communion Sunday, October 4, 1964.

5. Observe Layman's Day, October 18, 1964, with lay speakers in every pulpit.

12. Easter Sunday, April 18, 1965.

13. Observe National Family Week with emphasis on family devotions.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

Report of Board

The Louisiana Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns has developed a study which, in its three major fields of emphasis, seeks to suggest the "why" of the church's position in expressing God's will and recognizes that individual persons within the church arrive at different conclusions on social issues of the day.

The paper suggests we all recognize our sinfulness and need of respect for one another as we seek God's will.

We recommend that this study be made available for study and especially suggest each local church commission on Christian Social concerns consider its thoughts during the coming year, as well as it being utilized by the incoming annual conference Board of Christian Social Concerns as an aid in dealing with its responsibilities.

We further recommend support of the Louisiana Moral and Civic Foundation, observance of Commitment Day and other educational emphasis in the program of the church in relation to the work of this board.

We further recommend that District Workshops be held to train local church commissions on Christian social concerns..

We further recommend the summer schools of moral concerns be supported wholeheartedly in this conference year.

The Board of Christian Social Concerns

Report — Study Paper

To fulfill the responsibility entrusted to us by The Methodist Church and by the members of this Conference, your Board of Christian Social Concerns has been forced to come to a clear-cut understanding of the nature and purpose of the Church which it seeks to serve. Again and again we have found ourselves faced with specific moral and social issues demanding our response without a precise understanding of the foundation upon which we must stand or the method of operation we must employ if we are to respond to these issues as the Church of Jesus Christ. The purpose of this paper is to outline such a foundation and such a method of operation.

*The Discipline of the Methodist Church, para. 1516 through 1549 and para. 2020.

It is the conviction of this Board that social concern is Christian social concern only when what is said and done is said and done in response to what God is saying and doing in the world. Before this Board can speak or act, then, with regard to any issue of social concern it must first ask the question: What is God saying and doing in the situation out of which this particular social concern has arisen?

The Church is that community which believes that the answer to this question is found in one place — in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth. In this historical event God has made known to us not simply what He did there and then in that time, but also what He is doing here and now and in all of time. Before this Board can determine, then, what God is saying and doing in any given situation out of which a social concern has arisen, it must first attend to the Word of God which was made flesh and dwelt among us in Jesus of Nazareth.

Through Jesus of Nazareth we learn that God is always coming to man in the world, and in His coming man is brought face to face with the truth — the truth about man and the truth about God. First of all, in the coming of God to man we are made to know the truth about ourselves — the truth that we are sinners. This truth about man which is disclosed in the light of the coming of God is not simply that we have done things which we ought not to have done and that we have left undone other things which we ought to have done. The truth is that these particular acts of commission and omission have their roots in an underlying and fundamental estrangement between man and his Creator.

The truth about us is that we are men, but we do not want to be what we are. We are creatures, limited beings, completely and totally dependent upon something outside of ourselves and outside of this world for life and for the future. But we want to be without limits, and independent. We, then, are the children of Adam—we are creatures, but we want to be “like God.”

When we come up against the limits of our human and worldly resources — or, to use the traditional language of the Church, when we come up against the cross—we are made to know that the life we have lived up to this moment has been based on a lie. Prior to this moment we have lived our lives in reliance upon ourselves and in accordance with our own will and purposes. Now, however, we are brought face to face with the truth that we cannot give life to ourselves, we cannot sustain life in ourselves, we cannot control the future, we cannot escape from the past.

In this moment of truth we are set free — free from a false reliance upon ourselves, free from bondage to our own will and desires, free from the way of living which has characterized our existence up to this moment — and we are addressed by the truth of God. We are offered the faith of Jesus of Nazareth in the faithfulness of our Creator as the new foundation upon which we may live our lives from this moment on.

In the light of the truth of our dependence and addressed by the truth of God's dependability, we are offered the possibility of laying down our old way of life — a way of living in reliance upon ourselves and in the service of our own self — interest — and of choosing a new way of life — a way of living in reliance upon the faith of Jesus in the faithfulness of our Creator and in the service of His Will and purpose for the future. We are now offered the possibility of dying with Jesus so that we may also live with him — of dying to the past which we have made so that we may live to the new future which God will give. In the moment of our meeting with God we are offered the possibility of giving up a life lived in reliance upon ourselves and living from henceforth in reliance upon the faith of Jesus that the One upon whom we are dependent is dependable; that the One who establishes and maintains the limitations of creatureliness and who thus makes us men loves us; that the One who meets us at the cross is able to make the future new no matter what the past may have been.

This new life which has been made possible for us by what God has done and is now doing for us in Jesus Christ derives its direction and structure from its foundation. Just as it was by the unmerited and undeserved love of God that we have been set free from ourselves and from the past and offered the possibility of a new and different future, so now it is to make known this love of God that we live. But because this love of God is not a piece of information about God or an idea about God but an actual deed of God, then this love can only be made known as we involve ourselves in what God is doing in the world to make possible a new future for all men.

Set free from ourselves and from the past by the gracious love of God, we are now free to live as responsible men and women in the world. Secure in the knowledge of God's love for us, undeserved though it be, we are free from our own self-centered concerns and able to respond to the needs of others as God has responded to our need. It is in so responding to the need of our neighbor for a new and different future that we make known what God is doing in the world for men.

The primary concern of this Board, then, is not with social issues as such but with the Gospel of Jesus Christ — the good news of what God has done and is now doing to make possible a new life for all men. It is because we believe that Jesus of Nazareth is the Word of God — it is because we believe through Jesus that God is speaking and acting in the world to make possible a new and different future for all men — that we speak and act. It is the Gospel that makes necessary social concern.

In the light of the above, then it is clear that the church is the people who live in reliance upon the gracious love of God for all men and to make His love known in the world. Let us now see how such an understanding of the nature and purpose of the Church can provide this Board with a foundation and method of responding to the various issues of social concern arising within its proper jurisdiction. For purpose of illustration let us respond now to three particular social issues of continuing and vital concern to this Board.

I. Temperance and General Welfare

The use of alcoholic beverages is but one among many symptoms of the human predicament and points to the peculiar and ineffective way in which some men attempt to extricate themselves from this predicament. There are thousands of alcoholics in our society, and Christians are deeply concerned to help find a cure for these sufferers. But along with this we have an even deeper concern for the problems of body and mind which, when these alleviants are sought in alcohol, may produce excess and addiction. The Christian Church has a responsibility toward people who are lonely, frustrated, confused, frightened, and unable to cope with the forces which lay them open to the attraction of this beautifully pictured "escape". The church is under obligation to assist these people materially, psychologically and spiritually, and to discover means of overcoming such obstacles to fullness of life.

This Board seeks an understanding of the response which we must take to this serious threat to the health, happiness and welfare of many people and to the stability of our families and community and our nation. This Board begins with the conviction that all men are creatures of God, accountable to Him for their conduct in all aspects of daily life. We are one in our sinfulness, our need, and our dependence upon Him for forgiveness, restoration and renewal. God freely offers this grace to us through Jesus Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit to bring man to faith in Him. All Christian ethical decisions are ultimately grounded in this redemptive and restorative deed of God in Christ. Faith, the reenactment of that deed in our lives, is the ground of meaningful existence, genuine commitment, individual fulfillment, and the source of courage to live in the world.

This Christian understanding of life means that the use of alcoholic beverages can be understood only in the context of the meaning of the word "responsibility". A Christian is one whose relation to God requires that he assume responsibility both for himself and for his fellow man. He is responsible for himself in the sense that he is accountable to God for the life that is God's gift to him. This gift carries with it freedom to make choices as to the direction one's life will take. Man's freedom before God creates possibilities for both self-fulfillment and self-destruction. Fulfillment — living according to God's will for our life — is realized only in a life of love — for God, for our brother and for ourself. Love of self is healthy only when its basis is a response to God's declaration of love for us in Jesus Christ. Our respect for ourself therefore is responsibility for one who is loved and valued by God. Because of this love for us, our lives are given ultimate significance. This means that any practice on our part which would tend to degrade personality would be not only a form of self-destruction but also an offense against God Himself. The position of the Methodist Church is that the use of alcoholic beverages does constitute a degrading of human personality. Even if a person is not in danger of becoming an alcoholic — and any beverage use of alcohol involves such a risk — the dulling effect of alcohol on one's skill and preformance is an adequate basis for total abstinence.

A great biblical principle must be brought to bear here. It is this: "Know ye not that your bodies are members of Christ? . . . know ye not that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit . . . ?" (I Cor. 6:15 and 19). Certainly of themselves these tests do not require total abstinence. The question is, what does dishonor the body? Many will hold that a moderate use of alcoholic beverages is no dishonor, but others will reply that although a moderate use under carefully controlled conditions is no dishonor, nevertheless the moderate can lead to the immoderate, and the consequences of immoderate use in our highly mechanized society are so drastic that one is wise to preclude the possibility of excess by refraining from the moderate which may lead to it.

Of equal importance is our responsibility for our fellow man. A second great biblical principle is consideration for the weaker brother. The classic passage is in Romans 14: "Then let us no more pass judgment on one another, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother. I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself; but it is unclean for any one who thinks it unclean. If your brother is being injured by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. Do not let what you eat cause the ruin of one for whom Christ died. So do not let what is good to you be spoken of as evil. For the kingdom of God does not mean food and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit; he who thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. Let us then pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding. Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for any one to make others fall by what he eats; it is right not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that makes your brother stumble."

If we translate this principle into the terms of our contemporary Christian social responsibility we can see that we are called to a more disciplined life in Christ, a witness based on Christian love and concern for others. This leads us to the deeper commitment of our lives and the question; what is the Christian witness? Dietrick Bonhoeffer, for example, challenges whether the effort to transmit a "cause" or "program" is ever genuine Christian witness. "One who is committed to an ethical program can only waste his forces in the empty air, and even his martyrdom will not be a source of strength for a cause or a threat to the wicked." This is to say that Christian ethics can not be given from one to another unless all the profundity of faith itself is introduced into the transaction.

II Peace and World Order

The presence of a communist government in the nearby state of Cuba is a matter of vital concern to all Americans and of particular concern to those of us who live in such close physical proximity to the nations of Latin America. The people of Louisiana have many social, cultural, and economic ties with the people of Latin America; and, consequently, we have grown increasingly concerned about the issue posed by communist Cuba.

Before the members of this Board can speak or act in response to this problem as the Board of CHRISTIAN Social Concern, we must first discover what God is saying and doing in this issue of social concern. This means that we must, first of all, dare to acknowledge the truth about ourselves — the truth that by natural inclination we, too, seek to serve our own self-interests and our own personal desires in dealing with this problem. In the awareness of this truth we must then concede the further truth that by ourselves and for ourselves we cannot live at all.

For some of us this will mean that we must acknowledge the fact that we believe in only non-violent resistance and will attempt to impose this conviction on the other members of this Board, upon God Himself, and through both upon the general membership of the church. But when this conviction is honestly examined in the light of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth — we must admit that the peace which is here disclosed cannot be identified with the absence of conflict, either moral or physical. Jesus set himself in opposition, physically and morally, to those false powers which enslaved men in his day. If we are to really discover what God is saying and doing in this issue, we must be willing to first surrender our preconceived ideas and theories about God and man and hold only to what is disclosed to us in Jesus of Nazareth.

For others of us this will mean that we must acknowledge the fact that we believe in our country — right or wrong, and we will attempt to impose this conviction on the other members of this Board, upon God Himself, and through both upon the general membership of the Church. But when this conviction is honestly examined in the light of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth — we must admit that the allegiance man owes to God is a higher loyalty than that which he owes to any worldly power — religious, political, economic, or social. If we are to really discover what God is saying and doing in this issue, we, too, must be willing to first surrender our preconceived ideas and theories about God and man and hold only to what is disclosed to us in Jesus of Nazareth.

Having acknowledged the truth about ourselves and thus attained the freedom from the past and from ourselves which the truth allows—we must live in freedom as responsible men and women. We must respond to the need of our Latin American neighbors as God has responded to our needs in Jesus Christ and thus make known what God is doing in the world. We must make known through our words and actions the fact which God has disclosed to us in Jesus Christ that He is at work in the world to make possible a new future for all men. To make known the Gospel of Jesus Christ, then, we must involve ourselves in the task of setting men free from those powers which enslave them and offer to them the same possibility of a new future of freedom in responsibility as we ourselves have received.

It is the conviction of this Board that communism, both in theory and in practice, is a totalitarian power which is destructive of man's true humanity. According to classical communist doctrine the governing principle which determines all human relations is the single end all men pursue — that is, the production of the material needs to support life. In this light communism interprets all of human history as the record of the conflict between men seeking to control the means of producing man's material needs. Communism teaches, therefore, that only when the institution of private property is abolished and all men are enabled to share equally in the control of the means of production and participate equally in the fruits thereof, will the true source of conflict between men be eliminated and men be able to live together in peace and happiness. It is toward this goal, communist doctrine of dialectical and historical materialism maintains, that all of history is inevitably moving; and it is to hasten the realization of the goal that all communist policy and activity is directed.

Because, then, communism is rooted in a fundamental lie about man and the true source of his life — communism is the enemy of truth and destructive of man's true humanity. Blinded by the lie to which it is committed, communism has betrayed millions of human beings into the hands of evil tyrants who in the name of historical inevitability have deprived man of his freedom, integrity, and his sense of individual and personal responsibility.

It is the conviction of this Board that this lie must be revealed for what it is and opposed wherever it is if we are to set men free from tyranny and offer to them the possibility of a new and different future of freedom in responsibility. If we are to make known what God is doing in the world we must inevitably work to set men free from communist tyranny. We must do so not because we are against communism but because we are for freedom and for the Gospel of Jesus Christ which makes freedom possible.

To help make possible a new future for our Latin American neighbors, we must be willing to take some concrete and real action to make known the love of God in the world. We must be willing to isolate this infection which has broken out in Cuba so that it will not spread to other people in Latin America, and we must be willing to enter the struggle for freedom and against tyranny in Latin America in direct opposition to the oppressive forces of poverty, ignorance and disease. If the communists of Cuba refuse to remain isolated, however, but seek instead to spread communism to other countries of Latin America, then the source of the infection in Cuba must finally be eliminated.

Such action involves the risk of war and bloodshed both to our own people and the people of Cuba and possibly even on a larger scale than this. But the war is already going on. We are not proposing to start a war. We are proposing that the struggle between freedom and tyranny which is underway be acknowledged as such and dealt with positively. Nevertheless, we admit that it is hard for us to speak thus as the Church of Jesus Christ. We freely acknowledge that we cannot kill men — and inevitably women and children as well — in His name; and we do not propose to do so. If we have to fight in order to make freedom possible in the world, we will not claim to justify the means by the ends. We will have to admit that fighting is wrong, but we may have to fight nevertheless. Our ultimate confidence, then, is not in the rightness of our action, but in the love of God who loves us even though we are wrong.

When we turn in reliance and hope to His love, we know that we must be honest not only about communism and its enmity of truth and freedom, but also about our own dirty hands. We must honestly ask ourselves whether we are really concerned about the needs of the people of Latin America for freedom or whether we are only concerned about the threat of communist imperialism to our national security and prosperity. Certainly we have not always served the cause of freedom in Latin America. Certainly we have looked the other way while our neighbors in Latin America groaned under the burden of dictators whom we found it convenient to use to serve our political and economic interests in Latin America. Certainly we ignored the needs of the people of Cuba for freedom until the people of Cuba exchanged a tyrant that would serve our interest for one that would not.

But it is not just in Latin America that our hands are not clean when it comes to man's struggle to be free. We cannot fight for freedom abroad unless we are willing to fight for freedom at home. To attempt to do so is to admit that we are not really concerned about freedom at all, but only about our own self-interests. But to admit this is to admit that we ourselves are not free. We can't fight for freedom in Cuba unless we are willing also to fight for freedom down the streets of our own communities and around the corner from our own homes. We can't fight to make possible a new and different future for our Latin American neighbors unless we are also willing to fight to make possible a new and different future for our Negro neighbors.

But this awareness of our own involvement in the evil of the world must not paralyze us with guilt. Our hands may not be clean, but they are free and they are powerful. By the light of the truth and by the grace of God we can be different from what we have been. We can be different at home, and we can be different in Latin America. We can begin now, and we must.

III. Human Relations and Economic Affairs

The racial problem between the white and Negro citizens of our state and our nation continues to confront this Board with its most difficult task. This is so, of course, because we do not stand apart from this problem, but are very much a part of the problem. We find it unusually difficult, then, in relation to this problem to acknowledge the truth about ourselves — the truth that by natural inclination all of us seek to serve our own self-interests and our own desires. Nevertheless, we must acknowledge the truth because we know that apart from the truth we cannot live at all. For some of us this will mean that we must acknowledge the fact that we believe that all men are equal and will attempt to impose this conviction on the other members of this Board, upon God Himself, and through both upon the general membership of the church. But when this conviction is honestly examined in the light of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth — we must admit that before God the only equality among men of which we are aware is the equality of our sinfulness and the love of God which is equally offered to all sinners. If we are to really discover what God is saying and doing in this issue we must be willing to first surrender our preconceived ideas and theories about God and about man and hold only to what is disclosed to us in Jesus of Nazareth.

For others of us this will mean that we must acknowledge the fact that we believe that some men are superior to other men by virtue of the color of their skin and will attempt to impose this conviction on the other members of this Board, upon God Himself, and through both upon the general membership of the church. But when this conviction is honestly examined in the light of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth — we must admit that before God no man has any ground of confidence in himself, but only in the unmerited and gracious love of God. If we are to really discover what God is saying and doing in this issue, we, too, must be willing to first surrender our preconceived ideas and theories about God and about man and hold only to what is disclosed to us in Jesus of Nazareth.

Having acknowledged the truth about ourselves and thus attained the freedom from the past and from ourselves which the truth allows — we must live in freedom as responsible men and women. We must respond to the need of our Negro neighbors as God has responded to our needs in Jesus Christ and thus make known what God is doing in the world. We must make known through our words and actions the fact which God has disclosed to us in Jesus Christ that He is at work in the world to make possible a new future for all men. To make known the Gospel of Jesus Christ, then, we must involve ourselves in the task of setting men free from those powers which enslave them and offer them the same possibility of a new future of freedom in responsibility as we ourselves have so graciously and undeservedly received.

The Holy Scripture teaches us that to make known the Gospel of Jesus Christ, there can be but one criterion by which we choose our words and deeds: "By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren." (I John 3:16). Our words and actions as the Church of Jesus Christ cannot finally be determined, then, by our personal likes or dislikes. The scripture does not tell us that Jesus liked all men, but it does tell us that he died for all men. And we who bear his name are called to likewise love all men — even and perhaps most especially those whom we do not and cannot like. We who bear the name of Jesus Christ must be willing to sacrifice our own self-interests, if need be, in order to make possible a new and different future for our neighbor.

We are willing to deal with our neighbor, whoever he is, on the basis of what he needs, rather than on the basis of what he deserves, because this is the way God has dealt with us in Jesus Christ. We do this, however, whether it be our Negro neighbor or any other neighbor not because of any illusion that our neighbor deserves our self-sacrifice in his behalf — he may not, nor because of any illusion that our neighbor will be grateful and love us in return — he may not; we do this simply because we know that our neighbor in common with all men needs a new future.

To help make possible a new future for our Negro neighbor we must be willing to take some concrete and real action to make known the love of God in the world. We must be willing to offer to the Negro an opportunity to receive a good education by opening to him the possibility of attending the school of his choice and receiving an education consistent with his proven abilities. We must be willing to offer to the Negro an opportunity to hear the word of God by opening to him the possibility of worshiping in the church of his choice and receiving the grace of God offered by God through His church to all men. Here again we must remember that we do these things because God has dealt this way with us — dealing with us not on the basis of what we deserve, but only the basis of our need.

In the same way, however, that our words and actions as the Church of Jesus Christ cannot finally be determined by our own personal likes and dislikes, our words and actions cannot be finally determined, either, by the likes and dislikes of our neighbor. We serve neither our own will nor the will of our neighbor, but only the will of God. While it is the will of God that we love our neighbor, love must not be sentimentalized so as to make what our neighbor wants synonymous with what he needs.

We are aware of the fact that our neighbor, as ourselves, is a sinner and as such he, as we, is naturally inclined to serve only his own self-interests. We do not fall into the error, then, of assuming that what our neighbor wants and what he needs are one and the same. As followers of Jesus Christ we propose to serve our neighbor's needs which may, or may not, be what our neighbor wants. The scripture does not tell us that Jesus was governed in his words and actions by what men wanted him to be and do. The scripture tells us, on the contrary, that Jesus repudiated what men wanted him to be and do in order to be and do what men needed.

In light of this we may acknowledge the possibility that our

Negro neighbor, just as most men, may want to be treated as an equal in the terms of his intelligence, his abilities, his social behavior, whether he is in fact or not. We shall be free to say to our Negro neighbor in this regard, as we must to all of our neighbors that all any person can offer to another person is the opportunity to become an equal. But we cannot say this, however, and at the same time continue to deny the Negro the opportunity to obtain the best education which he is capable of receiving or to live in the best neighborhood he can afford or to hold the best job he can fulfill.

In light of this we may acknowledge the possibility that our Negro neighbor just as most men, may want the privileges of full citizenship in our land without the responsibilities which make those privileges possible. We shall be free to say to our Negro neighbor in this regard, as we must to all of our neighbors, that mutual responsibility is the foundation of a free society and that no man is free to be an irresponsible member of society. But we cannot say this, however, and at the same time continue to deny the Negro equality before the law which regulates and defines our responsibilities as citizens and on which our society is founded. There cannot be two sets of laws — one for the white man and one for the Negro. We must insist that the Negro be responsible to his fellow citizens in the same measure that we insist that the white man must be responsible to his fellow citizens. Both races should be equal in terms of their responsibility and equal also in terms of the enjoyment of the privileges made possible by the fulfillment of these mutual responsibilities.

In dealing with our neighbor, then, we must seek honestly to determine his real need rather than simply his desires. In doing so we must always be on guard against our sinful inclination to escape from responsibility to our neighbor and to respond only to our own interests and desires. After we have done our best, however, to determine the real needs of our neighbor, we must be aware of the fact that we may be wrong in our estimate of his needs — but we must act nevertheless. Our ultimate confidence remains always a confidence in that same love for God by which our new life in Christ became a possibility and which we seek now to make known to others; for we must act not in confidence in the correctness of our own judgment, but in God's love for us even though we may be wrong. Only in the freedom to be wrong are we really free from our own self-centered concerns and able to respond to the real needs of our neighbor.

This Board accepts, then, the obligation, shared we believe by all Christians, to speak and to act with regard to issues of social concern in such a way as its best judgment will make known the love of God for all men and the new future which God in His love makes possible for all men. In so speaking and acting, however, this Board is aware that it speaks and acts only for itself and not for The Methodist Church or this Conference as a whole. We do not claim that those who disagree with our words or actions cannot be Christians or cannot be faithful members of the Methodist Church. It is not the business of this Board to judge who is a Christian or who is not — this is God's business and we leave it gratefully in His hands.

But as individuals and as members of this Board, charged by The Methodist Church and by the members of this Conference with the responsibility of making known the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the area of social concern, we will speak and we will act on our own and for ourselves and, we sincerely pray, for God. We hope that others within our church of similar conviction will follow our lead, and we hope that others of different conviction will disagree with us in the same spirit of honesty, love and faithfulness in which our words and actions are offered.

CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

Report of Committee

THE NEED FOR RECRUITMENT. If the Church is to be in mission then leaders for this mission are greatly needed and the Church must never neglect to challenge youth and adults with the thrilling experience which can be for them in the work of the Church.

The need for new missionaries in 1964 is as great as it has been in the past. There are a large variety of mission-related projects in America which call for workers in even greater numbers and the call for missionaries comes from 25 other countries. The Methodist Church needs 5,350 workers to help meet the call from world and national missions. In addition, the Methodist Church needs: 2,400 for the pastoral ministry; 250 for Christian education in local churches; 1,230 for college teachers and student religious leaders; and 37 directors of Religious Education in the Louisiana Conference are needed.

Overseas, in the face of unprecedented need and opportunity, we find services held up and advance blocked because there are too few missionaries. Workers are needed in some seventy professional fields.

THE WORK OF THE LOCAL COMMITTEE. The different levels of the organizations of Christian Vocations strive to help meet these needs, and more important in recruitment than the Conference Commission or the district committees, is the committee on Christian Vocations in the local church. As has been said, "We can never do the Christian Vocations job adequately until we are working at it in the local church."

The Louisiana Conference Commission on Christian Vocations, along with those from other conferences, sent a memorial to General Conference requesting that the committee be a required commission in the local church and should this be approved the local committee could be strengthened.

THE METHODIST STORY is now being received by all local chairmen. and in Louisiana there are now 245 local chairmen or contact persons receiving this publication, to assist in interpreting the philosophy of vocation in Christian terms and in acquainting an individual or a congregation with the recruitment needs of the Church.

Further help available for the local committee is material pertaining to specific areas of work in which workers are needed. The March issue of "The Adult Student" carried a five-session unit in the general area of the "Adult and Christian Vocations," written by Dr. Richard H. Bauer, Executive Director of The Interboard Committee on Christian Vocations. The purpose of this study is to "increase understanding of the doctrines of Christian Vocations and to become aware of the needs and opportunities in church-related vocations."

"You and Your Life Work," a workbook text on vocations for young people is available. The study of this book will help young persons to face the needs of the world, to examine "who you are" and to consider God-given abilities in the world of work and, particularly, in the Church. One of the thought provoking statements in this study is that eighty percent of the young people choose a vocation by chance and fifty percent are unhappy with their vocational choice. This certainly indicates that the program of Christian Vocations among young people in the local church needs to be strengthened. One church in the Louisiana Conference has reported using this study.

The district chairmen have taken as a part of their responsibility that of strengthening of the local committees along with the district workshops for young people. This year four workshops have been reported: the districts of Lafayette, Monroe, New Orleans and Shreveport.

NAMES CHanneled. In the latter part of 1963, 19$ of those who had completed a Basic Information Record Blank, or a High School questionnaire, were categorized into 26 different church-related vocations. Leading preferences for vocations were as follows:

1. Directors of Religious Education	20
2. The Ministry	39
3. Medical Missionaries	36
4. Ministry of Music	18
5. Teaching	26

Names of those persons who have indicated an interest in a church-related vocation should be sent to the Commission, for that is one of the functions, to cultivate in any way possible those who feel the challenge of working for the Church. We earnestly request that this be done.

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE. Three years ago several of the institutions in the Louisiana Conference cooperating with the Conference Commission on Christian Vocations, promoted summer work projects for the college students; thus giving the students an opportunity to gain information of and experience in church-related vocations.

Again in 1964, The Reverend James Foole is directing the program of summer work projects with the following church-related institutions: MacDonell Methodist Center, Methodist Children's Home, and Centenary College. This information is being channeled through the Wesley Foundations, and "The Louisiana Methodist," and the district directors of Christian Vocations.

The Reverend Edwin E. Sylvest, Jr., is exploring plans to hold in 1965 a "Guidance Consultation." This will be an attempt to relate the opportunities for work in the Methodist Church with that offered by the guidance counselors in public schools and to discover the mutual concern of school and church for realistic vocational and educational goals for youth.

Under the direction of The Reverend Ray Branton, Dr. Richard Bauer will itinerate the eight Louisiana districts working with the local and district committees. Dates have been set and the meetings are being publicized.

A conference-wide conference for older youth is being planned for 1965. In "The Methodist Church Related Vocations and Service Projects for 1964" is this statement, "The home, the local church together have a crucial responsibility in sounding God's call to life and service through the Church. All Christians should be constantly in prayer that the Holy Spirit may be powerfully at work in the hearts of our people, calling and guiding into service and empowering for the task ahead."

DEACONESSReport of Board

Celebrating the 75th Anniversary of the Deaconess Movement presented an excellent opportunity for promotion for your Confer- ence Deaconess Board. (It is a Conference Board, not a Deaconess Association as some seem to think.) Although some plans did not materialize, many did, and we feel that knowledge and understanding about the deaconess relationship and deaconess work was definitely advanced. Brochures depicting the work of deaconesses in Louisiana were printed and distributed; also new place mats were printed.

To foster better understanding of the deaconess relationship in the local church, the Board requested, and was granted by the Cabinet, a Sunday, November 10th, which was designated as "Deaconess Sunday." Packets containing the new literature and other materials were prepared and distributed through the kindness of the District Superintendents to every pastor in the Conference. We hope this Sunday was observed in many churches; we know it was in some. Letters with packets were also mailed to our Wesley Foundation Directors. Together Magazine had issued a supplement on deaconess work with pictures and brief biographical sketches of deaconesses in Louisiana in December 1962. These were carried in the Louisiana Methodist during the year. Local papers such as the Times Picayune of New Orleans also carried feature stories of deaconess work.

Other methods of promotion included speeches, letters, counselling, and participation in District Career Clinics. One deaconess was invited to a high school in her community to participate in their Career Day. Young people on tours from Louisiana and from out of state were challenged by agency staff as they visited our several institutions. The movie, "Make All Things New," available free through the Area Council Office, was circulated through the conference.

Mrs. G. W. Dameron, Conference President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, represented us at the South Central Jurisdiction Deaconess Association meeting held in Wichita, Kansas, February 15-16th. It is our hope that one of our deaconesses will be able to attend the next meeting and also that we will be represented at the National Deaconess Convocation which is to be held in Cincinnati, Ohio, March 27-29, 1965.

Three new deaconesses, all teachers at Sager-Brown School, Baldwin, Louisiana, joined our ranks this year — Miss Phoebe Reynolds, Miss Shirley Manning, and Miss Barbara Boultinghouse. They were officially welcomed to our group at our Annual Meeting held in Alexandria, Trinity Methodist Church, April 7, 1964. It will not be possible to present these deaconesses at the Annual Conference this year as each expects to be consecrated in the Annual Conference from which she came. We shall hope to have them present at the Annual Conference next year. Miss Reynolds was commissioned in Detroit, Mich., Nov. 10, 1963, Miss Manning and Miss Boultinghouse at Buck Hill Falls in January 1964.

We have had ten active deaconesses working in Louisiana this year in administration, Christian Education, group work, social work, kindergarten, and formal education. Two of these 10 are in the Central Jurisdiction: Miss Rosie Ann Cobb and Miss Phoebe Reynolds. We have one accepted candidate and three young women who are in the process of filling out their first papers. We also have two retired deaconesses in our Conference. Miss Shirley Manning will leave Louisiana at the end of the summer to continue her studies at Scarritt College. One accepted Deaconess candidate, Miss Kathleen Gates, of Follock, awaits commissioning and appointment. These young women are possible candidates for the Deaconess relationship: Miss Nell Coulter, presently employed as secretary to Miss Mary Lou Barnwell, Executive Secretary for the Commission on Deaconess Work; Miss Jo Marie Ellet, Director of Christian Education at Lake Vista Church in New Orleans, and Miss Betty Vickers, senior at Centenary College.

Although our anniversary year is over, we hope that the interest in deaconess work that has been engendered will not lag, but that many new recruits will be enlisted as many workers are needed to fill the vacancies in our churches, the projects of Woman's Division, other Church Boards and church related agencies.

HOSPITALS AND HOMES

Report of Board

The Board of Hospitals and Homes has had before it representatives from the Institutions of our Annual Conference. We would like to add to the expressions of appreciation already made, that of the Board of Hospitals and Homes for the most outstanding work done by Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Haughton in their eleven years at the Methodist Home Hospital. Under their patient and sacrificial leadership the Home-Hospital has made outstanding advancement. It is with deep regret that we see them come to their time of retirement. At the request of the Board of Directors of The Methodist Home Hospital we ask the approval by the Bishop and the appointment of The Reverend Jack Midyett as the new Superintendent of the Home Hospital.

The Board of Directors requests the renaming of all present members of the Board of Directors for the coming year. It is further asked that the Annual-Conference designate, as in the past, Christmas Sunday, December 20, as METHODIST HOME HOSPITAL SUNDAY, and that those churches not placing an adequate amount for the operating budget of the Home-Hospital in their local budgets, take an offering for this institution of mercy. It is further requested that local churches set as their minimum goal for the support of the Home-Hospital an amount equal to 4 per cent of the pastor's salary. Ministers are urged to always be aware of the need of good Christian homes that would be interested in adopting a child to be referred to the Home-Hospital.

The campaign for The Methodist Hospital in New Orleans is well under way. We urge every church in the conference which has not already done so to put on their campaign for funds at the earliest possible moment. This will be the first completely owned Methodist General Hospital in Louisiana. This is a field long neglected. The Board of Directors has asked that the following persons be named directors to the Methodist Hospital, New Orleans, Louisiana:

Terms to expire 1965:

Mr. W. A. Baker
Dr. O. N. Miller
Mr. Paul Light
Mr. C. O. Backstrom, Jr.
The Reverend Benedict A.
Galloway
Mr. Dennis J. Bergeron
Mr. E. E. Cayard
Mr. E. N. Lennox
Mr. David B. Cross

Terms to expire 1966:

Mr. M. K. Schor
Mr. R. H. Triplett
The Reverend C. F. Leug, Sr.
Mr. G. D. Williams
Mr. P. F. Jahnce, Jr.
Mr. Bingham C. Stewart
Mrs. James Seglund
Mrs. Joseph E. Manis
Mr. Daniel L. Kelly

Terms to expire 1967:

Mr. Alfred F. Hanson
Mr. Pendleton E. Lehde

Mr. Bascom K. Doyle
Mr. H. T. Devane

Mr. Francis Henry
Mr. Seymour Weiss
Mr. Urban C. Wilkinson

Mr. C. C. Walther
The Reverend John B.
Koelemay

The Glenwood General Hospital, West Monroe, operated by The Methodist Church of the Louisiana Annual Conference presented an excellent report by its superintendent. In 21 months of operation, 18 of these have been entirely in the black which is a most unusual record for a new hospital. The hospital is fully staffed, having added to its staff in January a full time Methodist Chaplain, the Reverend Donald Wineinger. Chaplain Wineinger is a fully accredited Chaplain with the American Protestant Chaplains Association. The following Trustees whose terms expire in 1964 are requested, by the Board of Trustees for the Glenwood General Hospital to be renamed for terms ending in 1967:

Dr. Hugh Bradshaw
Mr. Harvey A. McDonald
Rev. A. Thomas Mitchell
Mr. G. Thomas Frazer
Mr. P. B. Mangum

Mr. A. Olin Evans
Mr. Archie Bridger
Mr. Kent Breard
Mr. Fred Riser
Mr. Charles Chisholm

To fill the unexpired term of Mr. Tommy Pitt, deceased, The Reverend J. P. McKeithen.

The Reverend Harry E. Ezell, Superintendent of The Methodist Children's Home emphasized the need for additional financial support. Since March of this year, at least 23 children who rightfully needed the immediate protection and care of The Methodist Children's Home had to be turned away for lack of room and staff. We join with the Board of Directors of the Home in urging every Church in the Conference to give renewed effort in raising funds for the operation of the Children's home. Sunday, September 27, is Hospitals and Homes Stewards Day at the Childrens Home. We hope that every church in the Louisiana Conference will have their Hopsital and Homes Steward on the campus of the Methodist Children's Home, to take back to their churches, first hand, the needs of this Home. We believe that if the people know, they will give.

The Board of Directors respectfully requests affirmative action by the Annual Conference and the Presiding Bishop on the following items:

1. The reappointment of The Reverend Harry E. Ezell as Superintendent for the coming year.

2. Election of the Board of Directors for a three year term the following:

Mr. W. A. Lewis
The Reverend Fred S. Flurry
Mr. Lucius McGehee

Mr. Jack Ritchie
Mrs. L. B. Kilpatrick

Election for one year to fill an unexpired term of one year: Dr. Paul McMillan Davis.

3. Continued observance by the churches of our Conference of the free will offering days for the Home, which days are Easter Sunday in the Spring, and Harvest Day in the Fall, the second Sunday in October.

The Reverend James B. Grambling made a full and complete report of the management of the Retired Minister's Homes and plans for future construction. We urge continued and additional support for these retired homes for Ministers. Where a little over $10,000.00 is received each year, to make possible a proper schedule of building to meet the need of retiring Ministers, $15,000.00 a year is needed. We request that November be observed as Retired Ministers Homes Month and that a collection be taken and special cultivation be given for these homes during this month. We request for the Board of Managers, that until proper space can be provided in the STATISTICAL TABLES to give local churches credit for the money they raise on this project, that the Conference Secretary be instructed to print in full the financial report of the Retired Ministers Homes. The Board of Directors requests that all persons whose terms expire this year, be renamed for the coming three year period.

The Board of Directors of The Methodist Home for the Aged, Incorporated, asks that the following be renamed for the coming year: W. C. Buchanan, 1400 College, Monroe, Louisiana; Dr. H. S. Roane, Green Clinic, Ruston, Louisiana, and Mr. Maurice Bauer, Vivian, Louisiana.

The Board of Hospitals and Homes feels that one of the most neglected fields of emphasis of the church is that of the Hospital Chaplaincy and Ministry to the sick. We find that most of the General Hospitals throughout Louisiana are without Methodist Chaplains, or with inadequate provision for Methodist Chaplain's service. Lack of trained Chaplains, scant funds for making services of a Chaplain available to hospitals across our state is appalling. We urge the Bishop and his Cabinet to give careful study to this great need for trained Chaplains and proper financial support.

We request the appointment of the following as full-time Chaplains to their respective hospitals. Where those hospitals are not under Methodist auspices, we request that the Bishop and Annual Conference make these men, under special appointment, eligible to participate both in the retirement plan of our church and the insurance plan of our Conference, if they so desire.

Roland K. Freidrick, to be appointed Chaplain Resident at the Louisiana Central State Hospital, Pineville, Louisiana. (P.O. Box 31).

Donald Wineinger, Chaplain, Glenwood General Hospital, West Monroe, Louisiana.

The Reverend L. A. Carrington, Confederate Memorial Hospital, and Veterans Administration Hospital, Shreveport, Louisiana.

Respectfully submitted:

EARL B. EMMERICH, Chairman
Secretary

Report of the Board of Directors of The Louisiana Methodist Children's Home

Your Methodist Children's Home is now responsible for care for one hundred and one children as compared with fifty in June, 1960. Facilities are taxed to the limit and becoming overcrowded.

A full program of wholesome Christian living is provided these children by Rev. Harry Ezell and a well trained staff.

We have seen an increased interest in the Home by the churches of the Conference manifested by more visitations and more sponsoring groups for projects on the campus.

Your Board is very devoted to the Home and are giving their best efforts in its behalf.

The Board of Directors respectfully requests affirmative action by the Annual Conference and Presiding Bishop on the following items:

1. Reappointment of Rev. Harry E. Ezell as Superintendent.
2. Election to the Board of Directors for a three year term the following: Mr. W. A. J. Lewis, Rev. Fred S. Flurry, Mr. Lucius McGehee, Mr. J. C. Ritchie, Mrs. L. B. Kilpatrick. Election for one year to fill an unexpired term of one year Dr. Paul McMillan Davis.
3. Continued observance by the churches of our Conference of the free will offering days for the Home, which days are Easter Sunday in the Spring and Harvest Day in the Fall, the second Sunday in October.

Respectfully submitted,

HOSPITAL AND HOMES

Report of the Superintendent, Methodist Children's Home

Salvation is the business of the Church, and salvation is the business of the Methodist Children's Home. To save children FROM the damaging effects of family breakup and separation, to save children FOR the fulfillment of physical, mental, and spiritual potentialities with which God has endowed them — this is our reason for existence.

The whole person is God's, and the program of the Methodist Children's Home is geared toward development of the whole person. To this end, the Home provides a five-point program for children in residential care:

Religion—To develop an awareness of personal worth as children of God.

Cottage Life—To provide knowledge and experience of responsibilities and relationships essential to successful family living as adults.

Professional Care—To provide essential physical, educational, and emotional guidance and development.

Guided Group Activities—As a means of teaching group planning and participation, and as a vehicle for individual therapy.

Training for Self-Reliance—To develop the skill, the will, and the self-respect essential to taking care of themselves.

A Foster Home Program, enrolling Christian families for the care of children, supported and supervised by the Methodist Children's Home, is expanding.

Our methods and program of care are enthusiastically approved by the professional agency which studies us for licensing purposes. Our system of financial accounting and cost control follows that established by a professional cost analyst, employed by the General Board of Hospitals and Homes. Our expenditure per child has been progressively reduced each year for the past three years and compares favorably with other Homes. We are doing our very best to fulfill effectively and efficiently our responsibilities to the Church and to the children in our care.

But what of the child who needs our help but cannot be accepted for care? Because of the rapid increase in the number of children in our care, both financial and housing limitations have become a very real factor in intake planning. For over two years, cottages have been filled to or beyond effective capacity most of the time. A major concern of the Board of Directors, in studying and approving annual budgets, has been the problem of securing sufficient funds to provide proper care for greater numbers of children. We, the Board of Directors and the Superintendent, ask you, the Methodists of Louisiana, to face with us some serious questions. Shall we seek funds to build more cottages in order to care for boys and girls whose needs we cannot now meet? Can we afford the additional personnel and increased operating costs entailed by such building? On the other hand, can we afford NOT to give care to the children whose needs call to us?

HOSPITALS AND HOMES

Report of Retired Ministers' Homes Board

BUILDING NUMBER SEVEN, HOUSING THE EIGHTH RETIRED MINISTER'S FAMILY has just been completed in Ruston and will be occupied after Conference by Rev. and Mrs. John G. Gieck. Dedication of this home will be conducted the later part of June. PINE CIRCLE DRIVE is now being completed and the space under the pine trees will be leveled off and made into a PARK between the circle road.

PROMOTIONAL and PUBLICITY occupied the summer and fall of 1963 and we are proud of the pastors who have responded so well to the drive for funds. We supplied District Superintendents with 30,000 self-addressed offering envelopes and they did a good job in circulating same through the local pastors. In October I mailed 900 personal letters to individuals and groups who had contributed in past years. 365 of these have been returned with offerings. MORE INDIVIDUAL PASTORS are purchasing INTEREST SHARES than in past years. 83 new individuals have been added to our mailing list by their 1964 gifts and 17 more classes and groups. We feel that more and more our pastors are realizing the importance of this program and that its success depends upon their personal interest and endorsement. 6 District Superintendents and 29 pastors purchased shares this Conference year totaling $375.00.

PROPERTY MAINTENANCE—All of our homes are in fine condition. The interior of the four room duplex has been re-decorated, A NEW ROOF has been put on HOME NO. 3 in Shreveport, replacing the roof damaged by hail a few years ago. GAS YARD LIGHTS have been placed at three of our Ruston homes as no city street lights are furnished back off the street. AS AN EXPERIMENT a 25,000 BTU WALL HEATER was installed at 3728 Judson, Shreveport, with the thought of future use if successful. FIVE YEAR INSURANCE POLICIES are carried on all seven houses and paid in advance from the MAINTENANCE FUND. This fund is provided by the occupants of the homes as designated by the Board of Managers.

THERE IS A GROWING INTEREST IN THE MEMORIAL APARTMENT BUILDING in Ruston, and I am happy to report that NEW ENLARGED plans are about finished. Estimated cost of construction will soon be available. We feel that this MEMORIAL APARTMENT should be constructed during the winter of 1964-65. The NEW PLAN calls for FOUR Apartments, large enough for couples and TWO a bit smaller for SINGLES. There will be a LARGE LOUNGE in the center in which there will be a GUEST ROOM. WE NOW HAVE ABOUT $33,000.00 available, SO IF WE WILL RAISE NEXT FALL'S COLLECTION ABOUT $5,000.00 OVER THIS YEAR'S RECEIPTS, WE CAN BUILD.

WE HAVE NO WORD from the City of Lafayette about when the sewerage system will be installed, therefore we will hold off there until same is completed.

ALL OF OUR FUNDS are in Building and Loan Stock in Monroe, and the General Building Fund is in a Savings Account. Interest is being earned on all funds and the holders of these funds report that Mr. Mike John, Jr., our Treasurer, is handling same in a very business like way. We are very grateful to Mr. John for his service in this capacity.

OUR GENERAL BUILDING FUND RECEIPTS THIS CONFERENCE YEAR again fell a bit short of what it costs to build a cottage home in Ruston. OFFERINGS were received from 132 churches who presented the project and took an offering OR placed it in their budget. A TOTAL OF 198 churches are represented in the total receipts. (See the complete Treasurer's report attached).

A DETAIL FINANCE REPORT of the OPERATING EXPENSE, which is partly furnished by the Annual Conference plus some of the INTEREST earned on the Lafayette fund, was turned in to the Commission on World Service and Finance as required by the Conference.

WE RECOMMEND that until the proper space be provided in the STATISTICAL TABLES to give the local churches credit for the money they raise on this project, we instruct the Conference Secretary to print our report in full in the Conference Journal.

WE ALSO RECOMMEND THAT THE CONFERENCE OBSERVE

THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER AS RETIRED MINISTERS HOMES MONTH, and during this month every pastor give publicity to this project, and that every congregation within the Conference be given opportunity to make an offering or BUY INTEREST SHARES. IN CHURCHES where an amount has been placed in the BUDGET, the PUBLICITY and PROMOTIONAL work be carried on just the same, with the personal endorsement of the pastor.

LAY ACTIVITIES

Board Report

The program of the laity during the 1963-1964 Conference year has been a busy one, a meaningful and informative one. The Board has held six (6) meetings, each well attended. As your Conference Lay Leader I had the privilege to attend the following meetings:

- (1) The 2nd. Methodist Human Relations Conf., Chicago, Ill.
- (2) Conference Lay Leaders Workshop, Chicago, Ill.
- (3) Mission Workshop, Denver, Colo.
- (4) South Central Jurisdictional Workshop, Mt. Sequoyah, Ark.
- (5) Saint Paul Seminar, Kansas City, Mo.

It would be impossible for me to tell you the value received from these Conferences.

On the Conference, District and local level, and before my illness, I attended all retreats and workshops. These also have been a rich experience.

It is most gratifying to report that the members of the Board of Lay Activities have been active in all Jurisdictional meetings, Annual Conference programs such as, the Board of Missions; Wesley Foundation; Methodist Hospital building project and Centenary College capital improvement program, also many other activities too numerous to mention. Achievements of the past Conference year, 1963-1964:

LAY SPEAKING: There were training courses held in seven of the eight districts in our Conference. Certificates were issued to those who completed the course of study, we now have in excess of 200 certified lay speakers. These men are trained to address any church gathering or fill any pulpit when and where needed.

In cooperation with the General Board of Lay Activities who promoted, for the first time, five pilot schools in Lay Theology, it was decided that one of these schools should be held at Centenary College. The Shreveport District Board of Lay Activities with the support of the College officials conducted such a course in "New Testament, Content and Values," this early spring. This course was taught by Dean Bond Fleming. A total of 169 were registered and of this number 89 were given certificates. This venture proved so successful that other such courses will be presented in the future.

ANNUAL LAYMAN'S DAY: Reports received indicate that almost every church recognized Layman's Day, Sunday, October 20, 1963. A memorial to the General Conference to change Layman's Day to the second Sunday in October was approved. It is our sincere desire that this designated day will be observed by all churches.

CHURCH LAY LEADERS: Realizing the importance of a well trained church leader, workshops were held in each of the eight districts. These were so well attended that it was the decision of the Board that they be continued bringing in all office holders and interested parties. Many of these workshops have already been set up for next year.

SCHOLARSHIP: The Conference Board of Lay Activities several years ago realized that there was a serious need of additional workers in the field of Religious Training. We now have three outstanding students taking advantage of this Religious Education training. This is an important field of activity in our church. And contributions from any interested source is welcomed, especially do we ask and urge all Methodist Men's Clubs and individual churches to become interested and pledge contributions. Miss Carol Wood, one of our first year scholarship students, has spoken at District Workshops and is employed this summer at Rayville Methodist Church where she is receiving actual experience in the field of Religious Education. Miss Betty Lou Vickers a second year scholarship student is employed this summer at St. Marks Community Center in New Orleans. Another second year student is Miss Martha Sneed of Jonesboro, Louisiana. All three young ladies will be our guests at the Laymen's Dinner during Conference, also will appear on the program for our Annual Conference Retreat August 8th and 9th on Centenary campus.

METHODIST MEN'S CLUBS: There are approximately 130 such clubs in the Louisiana Conference. There are at least 460 churches, thereby this is a very poor percentage of clubs. It is the goal of the Conference Board of Lay Activities to have a men's club in every church. We are of the opinion that there is no church organization so far reaching, more beneficial to the Minister and his church program than a wide awake men's club. The Methodist Men's Club is the largest organization of men in the world. I now invite you to take another glance at our percentage. Our Board is anxious to give any assistance desired in the organizing of these clubs. We are not satisfied with the present number of clubs in our conference.

1000 CLUB: We find more interest being manifested here. We now have some thirty (30) churches which have been helped through this medium, with a membership of approximately 10,000. During this Conference year the following three churches have been the recipients: the Belle Chasse Methodist Church, Belle Chasse, La.; Love Chapel Methodist Church, Haughton, La.; Wesley Methodist Church, Sulphur, La. We now have six applicants for assistance during the next Conference year, and we are presently limited to helping only three. The Policy Committee will decide what, if anything, can be done about this at this Annual Conference.

FISHERMAN'S CLUB: An active Fisherman's Club in a church is a tremendous asset. Where such clubs exist and meeting regularly excellent results are being obtained. Many of the churches have these clubs, those that do not should give serious consideration in organizing one.

ANNUAL AND DISTRICT RETREATS: The Annual Conference Retreat on Centenary Campus August 3-4, 1963 where over three hundred (300) men gathered to witness and to receive spiritual guidance was tremendous. The five discussion groups so capably handled were enthusiastically received by those attending. Mr. Walter Anderson, Conference Lay Leader of Raleigh, North Carolina, our guest retreat speaker was an inspiration at each of the worship services.

There were seven (7) District Retreats held — this is an improvement over the past years. Each of these Retreats were well attended and a merit of much praise is due the respective District Lay Leaders.

ANNOUNCEMENTS 1964-1965: The 1964 Annual Laymen's Conference Retreat will be August 8th and 9th at Centenary College. Mr. H. J. Taylor of La Grange Park, Illinois, will be our guest speaker. He comes to us highly recommended. He is at present Chairman of the Board of Club Aluminum Products Company; a past President of Rotary International and presently Chairman of National Lay Committee on Evangelism of the Methodist Church. We are indeed fortunate in having him as our guest speaker.

Bishop Walton, who was unable to be with us last year due to illness, has accepted our invitation to bring the 11 o'clock Sunday morning message. Our discussion leaders have been assigned their subjects and are putting forth much study. Other highlights will be participation by President Jack S. Wilkes, the three young lady recipients of our scholarship awards and special music being arranged by Mr. Eugene Smith our Conference Board music director.

In closing I wish to convey my sincere thanks to Bishop Walton, District Superintendents, Ministers and a double thanks to the Laymen who have worked so diligently — giving of their time to the program of the laity and support to their respective churches. It has been a privilege indeed to be a part of such activity and my thanks go to each of you and that God may give each the strength to carry on. We have a challenge to meet — it is up to you and me to carry such a challenge successfully to its goal.

Report of Joint Commission

We make the following recommendations for action by the annual conferences:

1. That the Circulation Campaign for 1965 be held during the period of January 3 to 10.
2. That the campaign goal for 1965 be 41,000 with the quotas for the local churches based on one subscription for each seven members reported by the local church in the 1964 Annual Conference Journal.
3. That the subscription price be continued at $2.00 with $1.50 rate offered to all churches that reach a figure of one subscription for each three members.
4. That an intensive campaign of cultivation be projected in the districts, utilizing the services of the district directors, to the end that an increasing number of local churches plan to include the paper in their budgets and send it to every church family. When this is done payment may be made monthly or quarterly if desired.
5. That churches sending the paper to every family on their constituency rolls be invited to use the back page for their local news, with the actual cost of typesetting and press changes borne by the church involved.
6. That the North Arkansas, Little Rock and Louisiana Annual Conferences be asked to continue the same appropriation of $4,600 each per year from conference benevolences for the support of the papers.
7. That the Executive Committee be authorized to act for the Commission in matters which seem to require attention between meetings of the Commission.
8. That the editor and the chairman of the commission be authorized to sign notes at the Union National Bank, Little Rock, for money that must be borrowed for current operation.

9. That our appreciation be expressed to the many persons who make possible the continued progress of your papers. This includes Bishop W. Kenneth Pope, Bishop Aubrey G. Walton, the 21 district superintendents of Arkansas and Louisiana, the 21 district directors, and the pastors and their faithful laymen who have worked so diligently in our circulation campaign and in channeling news and pictures to us throughout the year.

We would also express appreciation to William D. Leavitt, director of Methodist Information for Arkansas, and Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, director of Methodist Information for Louisiana, and to the following regular contributors: Dr. Ira A. Brumley, Dr. J. Henry Bowdon, Thomas A. Pitt, the Rev. K. G. Rorie, the Rev. E. J. Holifield, Dr. Cecil R. Culver, Dr. E. T. Wayland, Dr. and Mrs. Roy I. Bagley, Charles Stuck and many others.

MINIMUM SALARY

Report of Commission

We, your Commission on Minimum Salaries and Sustentation (hereafter referred to as the Commission), hereby express our appreciation for your continued support of the Minimum Salary Fund. This fund has rendered an invaluable service to both pastors and charges, and has been a vital factor in expanding the service of Methodism within our Louisiana Annual Conference.

We greatly appreciate the able assistance rendered the Commission during the past year by the Cabinet Representative, Dr. Bentley Sloane, and we sincerely commend our faithful and competent Conference Treasurer, Rev. J. E. Hearn, for his efficient management of the funds of this Commission.

In accordance with the provisions of the 1960 Discipline of The Methodist Church, we hereby present our report in the following two sections:

I. THE MINIMUM SALARY FUND:

The Commission is charged with the responsibility of studying the need for additional ministerial support for ministers of our Conference and to make recommendations on how these needs will be met. In accordance with paragraph 826 of the 1960 Discipline, the Minimum Salary Fund is to be used in addition to other supplemental aid or income from other sources to bring the total family income of a minister to the minimum salaries schedule adopted by the Conference. The Minimum Salary Fund helps provide a living support for those ministers whose charges cannot or have not met the Minimum Salaries Schedule set by the Conference. We feel our endeavor should be to promote more fairly the economic welfare of all pastors and reduce to a minimum the tensions inherent in inadequate incomes.

In accordance with provisions of the 1960 Discipline, (paragraph 826), we, your Commission, make the following recommendations:

1. That the basic minimum salaries schedule for the Louisiana Annual Conference for 1964-65 shall be as follows:

- A. Student pastor without dependents$2,400.00
- B. Married student pastor not living on the charge.. 3,000.00
- C. Full-time pastor without dependents 3,300.00
- D. Married student-pastor living on the charge 3,600.00
- E. Married full-time pastor living on charge 3,900.00
- F. Additional grants up to a maximum total of $600.00 shall be granted to minimum salary recipients on the basis of $200.00 for each child and/or extra church.
- G. A minister's portion of the Conference Group
Insurance program will be paid by the Commission on Minimum Salary for the 1964-1965 Conference year.

2. That annual grants approved by the Commission shall be paid in monthly installments on the basis of funds available at the beginning of the Conference year, and in the event of insufficient funds, appropriations shall be made on a pro-rate basis.

3. That in computing minimum salary grants, total family income from all sources, both husband and wife, shall be counted as pastor's support. Pastors receiving supplemental support from the Minimum Salary Fund are required to report immediately any change in family financial status. In the absence of notification by the pastor, over-payments become a refundable obligation of the pastor to the Minimum Salary Fund.

4. That the maximum amount to be provided by the Commission for a pastoral charge will be an amount not to exceed 25 per cent of a minister's salary, automobile and utility expense allowance paid by the church. Additional grants specified in 1.F may be made in addition to the 25 per cent limitation.

5. That pastors of charges paying less than $2,400.00 in salary and expense funds shall not be permitted to share in the Minimum Salary Fund except on recommendation of the Cabinet and concurrence by the Executive Committee of the Commission.

6. That charges with pastors receiving minimum salary assistance are required to increase the pastor's salary or expense account an amount equal to 5 per cent of the base salary of the past year in order to become eligible recipients. Exception for hardship situations will be granted on recommendation of the cabinet.

7. That the Every Member Canvass be carried out in every pastoral charge.

8. That every church pay to the Minimum Salary Fund the amount apportioned by the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance.

9. That at the earliest opportunity after adjournment of Conference, District Superintendents shall furnish the Secretary of the Commission a list of ministers in the area receiving less than $4,500 in salary and expense.

10. That each pastor named by the District Superintendent shall be supplied a questionnaire which must be properly filled out and returned to the Secretary of the Commission, Rev. K. G. Rorie, before payments may be authorized.

II. THE SUSTENTATION FUND:

The Commission has been charged with the responsibility by the Louisiana Annual Conference of administering the Sustentation Fund as provided for in paragraph 828 of the 1960 Discipline of The Methodist Church and in accordance with provisions of the Discipline, we, your Commission, make the following recommendations:

1. That each effective minister of the Louisiana Annual Conference be assessed an amount equal to one-half of one per cent of the minister's base salary for 1964-1965 to be paid to the Sustentation Fund.

2. That this fund be used to provide for emergency benefit aid to the ministers of the Louisiana Annual Conference who may be in special need.

3. That each pastor and church cooperate in providing an adequate hospitalization insurance program for family protection.

4. That the Commission will consider cases only upon recommendation of the Cabinet.

HISTORICAL COMMISSION

Report of Commission

Historical Commission wishes to report that the transfer of the Archives of the Louisiana Conference from Whitney National Bank, in New Orleans, to the Archives Section of the Library of Centenary College has been completed.

We urge individual churches to prepare their local histories to add to this collection.

In order that these records be of greatest value to our people, it will be necessary to have them properly indexed. Such indexing will require an initial appropriation of $150, which we hereby request the Conference to authorize.

PUBLIC RELATIONS AND METHODIST INFORMATION

Report of Commission

In 1936 Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman wrote a thoughtful humorous play, You Can't Take It With You. A touching moment comes early in the play when Grandpa gives the grace, before the family of three generations begins the meal:

"Well, Sir, we've been getting along pretty good for awhile now, and we're certainly much obliged . . ."

The Commission on Public Relations and Methodist Information feels that this grace is representative of their feelings, for "we've been getting along pretty good and we're much obliged." Particularly are we "much obliged" to the Director of Methodist Information, for other than the original structure and overall guidance, the outstanding achievements of your Commission rests entirely upon the efforts of our full-time Methodist Information Director, Mrs. Lona Wilson. Now in her fourth year, Lona continues to work in a tireless and unselfish manner. The results of her efficiency are evident, both in the quality of her personal work, and in commendation of those in other positions.

Among her many commendable achievements, the Louisiana Conference will be proud to know that Lona was one of the Area Directors invited to assist the National staff in the coverage of General Conference. Last fall she was featured on a British Broadcasting Corporation television, in which she described Methodist work in Louisiana.

A more detailed report can be seen in the following job analysis which she presented to our Commission:

The director has written at least 275 stories, including 35 general releases to all 120 newspapers in the state; 65 different stories specially written for individual papers; 15 stories for a particular district; 15 feature stories; and about 145 stories for the TOGETHER Area News Edition.

The News Edition has at least one feature story each month, and the LOUISIANA METHODIST uses her feature stories regularly, the most recent was "A Review of Parable," in the May 21 issue. "A Doctor in Utila" telling of Keith Mason's mission visit to Hondouras was featured in the Shreveport Times. "On the Job Training," a story about Tommy Pitts' workshops for lay leaders, appeared in the Methodist Layman in March. Hundreds of pictures by Louisiana Methodist Information appear in the Louisiana Methodist and the Area News Edition. She has sent public relations material to every pastor in the Conference, and has prepared a brochure for the Louisiana Council of Churches interpreting that organization with 5000 copies having been distributed.

At the last session of the Annual Conference we reported that Mrs. Wilson began sending the TOGETHER News Edition to all members of the Louisiana Conference living outside the state, such as home and foreign missionaries, chaplains, professors, jurisdictional and general board staff members. To this list she has now added the students in seminaries.

As a news media in Public Relations and Methodist Information, we heartily commend the Commission on Publishing Interests for their program this year in the promotion of the TOGETHER magazine, the most effective literary media geared to the whole family. Mrs. Wilson has been actively involved in this circulation campaign which will be completed in October.

Due to a lack of funds, the director has not been able to visit or speak in the districts this year. For the same reason, she has not been able to visit the newspaper offices in the state.

For the fine quality of work of the Office of Methodist Information, we are indebted to the co-operation of each commission member, to the continued inspiration of Bishop Walton's excellent leadership, and to the added counsel and guidance of the Cabinet and the World Service Commission. We shall need even greater guidance in our projected program as we search for ways and means of conducting Public Relations Workshops in every district of the Louisiana Conference.

The work of the Office of Methodist Information, both for this year and the coming year, has been explored thoroughly on consultation with the World Service Commission. Our proposed budget for 1964-65 has been presented to and approved by the World Service Commission.

Experience has taught us how imperative it is that the Methodist Church have an effective presentation in the public press and other communications media of the program and activities of its conference and local church levels. We, therefore, enthusiastically recommend the continuing of this program which has already proved to be so worthwhile.

LAEL S. JONES, Chairman

MISSIONS

Report 1-A of Board

The quadrennium now ending has seen a strengthening of the mission and extension program of our Conference, from the local to the Conference level. This is reflected in the growth of the number of active Commissions on MISSIONS in the local church, in a remarkable growth in the number and amount of Advance Specials, the strengthening of the District Boards of Missions and their financial support, the growing service rendered by District Missionary Secretaries, the growing response to the WSCS schools of Missions and WSCS gifts to missions, the organization of the New Orleans Inner City project; and in the steady addition of new congregations. A total of 11 new churches have been organized, with all but three of these now full-time churches.

However, a definite trend has been manifested in the past two years, which calls for a new approach to the organization of new congregations. At first, the rapid growth of metropolitan areas meant new congregations could be formed with sufficient potential to need full-time Pastors from their beginning. It now appears that there is no prospect for a new full-time congregation to be organized in the coming Conference year. Rather, the need now seems to be to organize second churches in medium-sized towns and new part-time churches on the rural fringe of cities. To help make this possible, the Conference Board of Missions recommends the following:

1. That local Commissions on Missions, in consultation with their District Superintendents, District Secretaries of Missions, and District Board of Missions, be especially diligent to survey their own area and see if they could start a mission church or church school in nearby unchurched communities, lending ministerial and lay assistance for holding regular church school and preaching services in such areas.

2. That such sponsoring churches be reminded that the Conference Board of Missions is willing to pay up to $50.00 a month for car and other expenses of pastors helping organize and serve such new areas or congregations. Such organizing expense grants will be paid monthly on the basis of actual expense as itemized by the Pastor and approved by the District Superintendent and said voucher sent to the Treasurer of the Board. This monthly expense refund is not to be considered salary aid or travel allowance in making appointments.

3. That the Conference Board of Missions will help the local church and/or District Board of Missions provide funds for leasing land or a building to serve as a temporary place for such new missions to meet.

4. That when such a mission is sufficiently developed to be ready for organization into a regular congregation, the Conference Board of Missions and the National Division of the General Board of Missions will make grants or loans to help purchase the first unit, provided that the Survey for Site Selection has been completed and that the District Superintendent and his District Committee on Church Locations has approved the location and purchase of such a site.

Due to the sad experience many congregations have had because of poor locations, the time has come for more detailed and scientific studies to be made before sites are bought for new congregations or relocations of older congregations. In joint session with the cabinet, this need was discussed in our mid-year meeting. Out of these discussions, the Conference Board of Missions recommends the adoption of the following as an amendment to its policy for extension grants and loans:

A RECOMMENDED POLICY FOR PROCEDURES IN LOCATING SITES FOR CHURCHES:

In order to assist District Boards of Church Locations and District Board of Missions in locating and starting new congregations or relocating established churches, we recommend:

1. That, as soon as possible in a new quadrennium, the Executive Committee of the Conference Board of Missions have a Workshop in Missions and CHURCH EXTENSION procedures of the National and Conference Boards of Missions for the District Superintendents, along with their District Secretaries of Missions, Chairmen of District Boards of Church Locations and Chairmen of District Boards of Missions.

2. That, in other years of the quadrennium, a new District Superintendent be given a similar orientation session shortly after his appointment to a District.

3. That before property is bought for a new location or relocation, the Survey for Site Selection provided by the Conference Board of Missions be completed by the District Board of Church Location.

4. When requesting financial aid from the Conference Board of Missions and/or the National Division of the General Board of Missions, a copy of this completed survey be attached to the application.

In addition to the above, we recommend to the Conference that when a new congregation is organized, it be given its apportionment for World Service and Conference Benevolences, and be placed in its yearly budget.

We also remind the Conference that any church applying for salary aid or church extension grants must have completed an Every Member Canvass within the last 12 months preceding, except those churches less than 12 months old.

We also endorse the recommendation of the General Conference, that established churches be encouraged to lend some of their members for a year or more to a new or mission congregation, or to a church in the "Inner City," thus enabling struggling churches to have better lay leadership and more financial strength. In addition, we heartily endorse the report of the Conference Committee on Urban Work, presented at this Annual Conference.

Report I-B of Board

The statistical portion of a report is always lacking in imagination and inspiration. But if we can somehow visualize what happens on the receiving end of the statistical record we can see churches established and strengthened, persons won to Christ, and Christians maturing under the preaching of the Gospel.

Members of the Board of Missions received a glimpse of this yesterday when a pastor came to thank us for the mission help given three of five churches (in two charges) which he has served during the past five years: one new church building, one new educational building, one new parsonage.

He said his thanks to us, but, in fact, the thanks go to you for your giving to World Service, from which the funds are derived.

The amounts granted his churches were relatively small but, in one instance, encouraging enough to motivate the young people of the charge to reclaim and clean old chimney bricks from deserted and collapsed farm houses to be converted into a lovely parsonage.

Well, here's where your money goes:

MISSIONS

Report II-A of Board

The evidence we find this year of an increased concern for the mission program and work supported by The Louisiana Conference is most gratifying. This does not just happen, but is the result of a deepened interest in the total outreach of the church by both minister and laymen alike. It speaks of the development of a conscience in this matter of World Service support, as well as the spectrum of special interests that surround it. It is believed that wherever our mission needs are presented in an understanding way and the appeal made, Methodists in Louisiana will happily answer the call.

Commendation is due a large number of our churches that have not only supported World Service, the basic mission structure of our church, but who have also gone the second mile. This year 149 churches merit Four-Lane Certificates, an increase of 18 over the report of last year. Among the four lanes of Advance Special support, churches have shown notable interest in the Rio Grande Conference by more than doubling our $4,000 support goal, by increasing our General Advance support 16 per cent, and by continuing the same high level of support for our Conference Specials. A new dimension within MCOR is "Meals for Millions," supported by 112 churches contributing over $5,000 to this worthy project. Over 300 local churches included in their World-Wide Communion Sunday observance the Fellowship of Suffering and Service offering, with 251 participating in the Great Hour of Sharing. The special appeal for Alaskan earthquake aid resulted in nearly one million dollars being contributed by Methodists, with over $14,000 from churches within Louisiana.

This section of the report could continue in detail, and those interested in statistics are encouraged to study the record. It is a record that proves Louisiana has never failed to meet the challenge of a genuine need. We may have every confidence in the mission program of Methodism. It merits our best. As we lay this upon our conscience, we will find our way to a grateful response.

MISSIONS

Report II-B of Board

This has been our best year for Advance Specials in this quadrennium. We have had more churches to participate, and our total giving to missions has gone beyond any previous record.

The 'Our Mission Today' program launched in 1960 as one of the quadrennial trusts has represented a vigorous effort to confront the people in Methodist Churches with some of the hard realities of the present situation in regard to the mission of the church. We have tried to keep before our people the need of engaging in constant prayer for the missionary work of the church. We have tried to educate and cultivate within our people an awareness of and participation in the church's mission, which will continue to manifest itself in financial and other support of missionary enterprise. We have tried to say that the mission is not ultimately a human endeavor, but a movement of the Holy Spirit through our people to the whole world. We have been gratified by the response of the churches to the call of missions, but we will not be satisfied until we give "as much for others as for ourselves." Actually the per-member contribution of our people to missions is less than the price of a cup of coffee per week, so there is much more to be done.

This has been a good year for us in World Service giving. Most of our churches paid their apportionment. Several churches overpaid. But a number of churches did not pay their apportionment and as a result, our Board of Missions alone will have $3,150 less money this coming year than we have had this past year. We urge all of our churches to pay in full the World Service and Conference Benevolent askings. This is the "Lifeline" of our church and all of our Boards and Agencies depend upon this one for existence.

We urge that our churches continue to give support to the four areas of Advance — World, Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, National, and Conference. We recommend that our churches pay the full support of our missionaries who have gone out from Louisiana. The following are not receiving full support from Louisiana:

The Carl Williams
The Carlos Welchs
The Larry Fleimans

The Ray Holts will be assigned to the Philippines this new conference year and they will need full support. A Communion Offering from all of our churches would go a long way in paying the salaries of these who serve in distant lands.

We must continue to build new churches. The areas where Methodist membership growth is the largest are the areas where the most new churches are being started.

In this new quadrennium we must give additional attention to "The Inner City." The Church must follow the people into new housing centers of the city. It has been said that either "we will Chrisitanize the city, or it will paganize the world."

The Church must move out of its security and spend itself. We will have to be hungry with those who lack food. We will have to struggle with those who are illiterate and forsaken.

Sometimes we think that distance or a foreign language, a political upheaval or economic distress makes a mission field. Actually, need makes a mission field. This covers the Congo as well as the Inner City, or the migrant worker, the Spanish speaking people of the Rio Grande Conference or the Cubans in New Orleans. There are needs in all these areas.

We urge you to go back to your churches and tell your people that Christ is calling them to new opportunities of service. This is to be the quadrennium of "one witness in one world." This is our day!

We have the greatest opportunity ever given to a generation of Christians. We must not fail Christ now!

We cannot close this report without expressing deep gratitude to the members of our Conference Board of Missions who have served so faithfully during these four years. Many of these will not be with us in the new quadrennium. Special thanks is extended to Alfred M. Brown who has been our chairman and has led us to new heights of service, and Tom Pitt our deceased treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

JACK COOKE

Conference Missionary Secretary

Report No. 1 of Board

Your Board of Pensions continues to work with love and concern for all our ministers and their dependents both active and retired. We are grateful for the support of all churches and ministers in this effort.

This past year we have paid $62 per service year annuity to all retired members and full-time supplies. We have paid the premiums on life insurance and hospitalization insurance for all retired members and widows. Since we are anticipating the continued cost of premiums for all our retired ministers and their dependents, and widows, we propose to hold the present rate of annuity at $62 per service year.

We respectfully ask the World Service and Finance Commission for $200,000 to be used for pension funds during the year 1965-1966.

We wish to remind all effective ministers and full-time supply ministers and those who are On Trial (serving a pastoral charge) that 1 per cent of their base salary shall be sent to the Conference Treasurer, marked "personal" by May 15 each year. Further, we remind all pastors who are serving an appointment that the "Conference Pensions" assessment made on each church must be paid in the same proportion as the pastor's salary. If the pastor's salary is paid-in-full and the pension fund assessment is not paid-in-full, the Board of Pensions is required by the Discipline to cause a lien to be placed against the pension of that minister, and be deducted from his pension at his retirement. Full disciplinary provisions will be acted upon beginning with the Conference Year 1964-1965. This holds true as well for the 1 per cent personal payment.

We recommend that all churches observe Retired Ministers Homes Day one Sunday in November, and give support to this cause.

The Board of Pensions secretary continues to perfect the service records of all our pastors who will have any claim on pension funds at retirement. If you find mistakes in the Conference Roll, please notify the secretary. This past year the Board of Pensions has studied the "supply work" of all pastors, has approved all supply years that we have any record of, and has sent to the General Board of Pensions the records of these approved years, so that this information will be included in their permanent records. Each pastor who has asked for credit on supply work has been notified of the action taken by the Board. Any changes or additions that any pastor may feel should be made will be carefully considered.

We request that the pensions assessment in all church budgets be listed as "Conference Pensions" rather than "Conference Claimants," so that the purpose of this item in the budget will be better understood.

We urge that the matter of wills and bequests to the Endowment Fund be presented to all congregations in some way. We hope some day to enter the Methodist Reserve Pension Fund program offered by the General Board of Pensions.

Report No. 2 of Board

In compliance with the direction given the Board of Pensions by the adoption of the Joint resolution at the 1963 Session of the Louisiana Annual Conference, your Board of Pensions has advertised for bids through the Louisiana Methodist. More than 30 sets of specifications and statistical data were sent to insurance agents across the state. Six insurance companies declined to make bids. Fifteen proposals were received from various insurance companies. Only eight of these companies offered bids on hospitalization. Of these only five bid on both active and retired programs. Three companies did not bid upon the specifications given them but offered separate proposals. Twelve companies bid on the death benefit program.

After careful consideration of initial rates, retention figures, benefits provided, minimum percentage of enrollment required, and the stability of the program offered, it is the unanimous decision of the Board of Pensions to recommend to the Annual Conference for adoption the group hospitalization and Medical Expense program of the Methodist Church, and we further recommend the adoption of the Death Benefit program of the Methodist Church.

PUBLISHING INTERESTSReport of Committee

The Louisiana Area is far behind in its use of TOGETHER magazine. The ratio across U. S. Methodism is one subscription for 13.1 members; for the South Central Jurisdiction it is one for 15.3 members; and for the Louisiana Conference it is one for 36.5.

Therefore, we have entered into a two-stage campaign to promote this family magazine. The purpose of the first stage, which was carried through in April, was to acquaint the leadership of our churches with the publication. The second stage will be conducted during the first half of September. During this time we will attempt to get as many churches as possible to get at least one subscription for every 10 members. This will place a church on the Family Plan, making possible a subscription rate of only $3.12. To implement this program a district director has been assigned in each district.

Items of Interest on a National Level

1. 1964 marks the 175th year of service of the Methodist Publishing House. The Methodist Book Concern was launched in 1789, with faith and six hundred dollars. The Publishing House had a combined net sales of $28,732,717 this last year. This is a long way from $600. After setting aside proper funds for the operation of the business, it has put $21,000,000 into the support of Conference Claimants. $700,000 was appropriated just last year. This growth will continue only as Methodist churches and individuals order their books and supplies from The Cokesbury Book Store, Dallas, Texas.

2. In this anniversary year the new curriculum for the Children's Division of the Church School will be ready for use by early fall. The printed lesson materials, audio-visual aids, and other items will greatly enhance our program with children.

3. Total church libraries were increased by 1,171 during the past year, exceeding the goal of 10,000 libraries by September, 1963.

4. Ninety-two new Abingdon books were published.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE

The Committee on Resolutions recommends as follows: That a scheduled time be set apart at certain of the Area Councils regular meetings, at which time they may be available for any members of commissions, committees, or other Methodists who might wish to offer creative suggestions, ideas, complaints, or opinions which might be in the best interest of the Methodist Church and the Louisiana Conference.

Further, that advance notice of these meetings which will be held for this purpose be made available to the Louisiana Annual Conference so that any person so desiring may arrange to be present for these meetings.

The Committee on Resolutions recommends as follows: That in order to clarify the status of the delegates from the Louisiana Conference who shall attend the called session of the General Conference to be held in 1966, that this Conference go on record that due to the background experience and information made available to the Louisiana Conference delegates at the General Conference of 1964, much of which will be necessary to properly face the issues of the 1966 called session, that the delegates of the Louisiana Annual Conference shall be the same delegates as elected to the 1964 General Conference.

RESOLUTION

Resolution on Pastors School

Since it is imperative that the faculty be chosen well in advance the Board of Managers shall be authorized and encouraged to choose the faculty two years in advance. Authority for the selection of faculty and planning courses for the school shall necessarily extend two years into the new curriculum.

In line with this policy the present Board has made arrangements in conjunction with the Perkins School of Theology for a depth course to be offered in the 1965 school. This will afford opportunity for those who elect to take advantage of it, an intensive and concentrated study in depth in some field set up and directed by the Perkins School of Theology. Fuller announcement as to the field of study and the reading list for this course will be made at a later time.

WILLIAM P. FRASER
Chairman, Board of Managers

RESOLUTION

The Committee on Courtesies

It is our wish in behalf of all who shared in fellowship here to give sincere and heartfelt thanks to the many persons who contributed to the success of this Conference.

First, we express to Bishop A. G. Walton the full measure of our gratitude for his magnificent leadership as he seeks to lead us to courageously labor for a world of peace, understanding and Christian brotherhood; we thank him for his messages, his understanding, his thoughtfulness. And to his gracious wife we give thanks for the delightful manner in which she communicates her love and understanding and friendship in this our treasured fellowship within the Methodist Ministry.

To Dr. Joe Mickle, Dr. B. C. Taylor, and the designated staff of Centenary College who planned and prepared for our meeting here, to Dr. Jolly B. Harper, the ministers and churches of the Shreveport area, all of these who extended a warm welcome and gave careful attention to say a genuine "Thank you."

To Dr. and Mrs. Laurence L. LaCour our heartfelt thanks for their stirring messages in words and music.

We make known our thanks for the worshipful communion service which opened our Conference, and give thanks to the Rev. Porter Caraway and the Rev. Sam Nader for expressing to the Conference our feelings of sorrow and concern in the Memorial Service.

We extend a hearty "thank you" to the choirs of Centenary College, Caddo Heights and First Church of Shreveport, and the Memorial Church of Monroe, to Dr. A. C. Voran who so capably led us in singing, and to our organist, Dr. Teague and Mrs. Booth, to the press, radio, TV, and Mrs. Lona Wilson our thanks also for a fine coverage of our Conference proceedings.

To the ministers who led our devotionals and early morning meditations we express a deep appreciation and gratitude.

To the thoughtful and courteous ushers and pages we are extremely grateful, and to the able and devoted secretaries we give special thanks.

We are exceedingly grateful to Dr. D. L. Dykes, pastor, and the staff of the First Methodist Church for their unnumbered services toward the fulfillment of a well-rounded Conference program.

To all those who have served faithfully and diligently on Boards, Commissions and Committees during the past quadrennium, we give our heartfelt thanks.

We extend a measureless gratitude to the Episcopal Residence Committee and its competent chairman, the Rev. B. A. Galloway, for a job "well done."

To the delegates to the General Conference our expression of thanks for their fine reports, their concern and representation.

We sing a hymn of praise to Jack Midyett for having served so faithfully for 16 years as secretary of our Conference.

To all who gave of time, energy, and devotion to make this an inspiring Conference week, we record our gratitude.

RESOLUTION

Board of Education

Nineteen years ago there came to the presidency of Centenary College a man of vision, insight and consecration. It was a time in the life of the College when strong leadership was necessary to turn the soul of the College into new channels of life and service. Dr. Joe J. Mickle came to the presidency with all the qualifications to fulfill this need. With deep commitment to this high calling, he brought to bear upon the task before him his great administrative ability and his complete commitment to the task of Higher Education. His consummate skill and abounding energy projected his plans for adequate buildings from the drawing board to reality, so that today where once were only whispering pines now stand stately buildings.

His deep insight into the whole matter of Higher Education enabled him to build a great faculty, a strong student body and a physical plant of outstanding beauty and utility.

Wherefore the Board of Education of the Louisiana Annual Conference takes great pride in the accomplishments under the administration and direction of Dr. Joe J. Mickle and rejoices in the wonderful help and inspiration given him by his lovely and talented wife, Therefore be it resolved that this Annual Conference express to these servants of the Church its great and lasting appreciation and gratitude.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the pages of the Conference minutes and a copy be presented to Dr. and Mrs. Mickle.

Thomas A. Pitt

WHEREAS, Thomas A. Pitt served his Lord for many years with great devotion in many capacities — as Chairman of the Board, and Lay Leader of his church, District Lay Leader of his District, Co-Chairman of the Conference Board of Lay Activities, and Associate Director of the Area Council of the Louisiana Conference of the Methodist Church; and

Tom Pitt personified all of those characteristics of devotion, ability and understanding which make for a great leader of the church; and

WHEREAS, Thomas A. Pitt served the Louisiana Conference Board of Lay Activities, in particular, for many years and was a source of constant inspiration, always counseling in a spirit of love for his fellow man; and

STUDENT CENTER BUILDINGSReport No. 1 of the Commission

The Commission on Student Center Buildings makes this, its last report to the Louisiana Annual Conference, South Central Jurisdiction, for the year ending May 31, 1964. On June 2, 1964, it relinquishes its responsibilities to the Annual Conference Commission on Christian Higher Education. (See page 166, 167, 1963 Conference Journal). This commission recommends the adoption, by the new commission, of the balance of the $47,800.00 commitments to Wesley Foundation Building programs. (Page 166, 1963 Conference Journal).

Following the adoption of the recommendations to the 1963 Annual Conference, and with the concurrence of the Board of Education, Dr. B. C. Taylor, Chairman, and Dr. J. Henry Bowden, Sr., Area Director, this commission has constituted the membership of the Commission on Christian Higher Education in accordance with paragraph 1452 of the 1960 Discipline.

1. Eight persons to be appointed from the Conference Board of Education (these members to be appointed from the members elected for the new quadrennium at the Annual Conference, June, 1964).
2. The Area Director of the Area Council in lieu of the Executive Secretary of the Board of Education. (See paragraph 1452.2, 1960 Discipline).
3. The Bishop.
4. The District Superintendents or one representative as designated by the Bishop.
5. The Conference Lay Leader.
6. The Conference WSCS President.
7. The State Director of Student Work.
8. Sixteen members at large: one layman and one minister from each of the eight districts to be appointed by the Cabinet for the new quadrennium.

During this conference year, two beautiful new Wesley Foundation buildings have been erected. One was at Northwestern State College, Natchitoches, Louisiana, and the other was at Northeast State College, Monroe, Louisiana. A new building for Tulane Wesley Foundation is scheduled to begin in January, 1965, and a new building for LSU Wesley Foundation is scheduled to begin within the next 12 months. The completion of these two buildings on the major campuses of our state colleges and universities will give the Conference eight permanent Wesley Foundation Buildings. Centenary College has also provided permanent quarters for the Methodist Student Movement in the new R. E. Smith Building.

The Commission on World Service and Finance allocated $5,670 for the support of Student Center Buildings and this amount has been expended as follows:

$ 900.00 LSU Wesley Foundation

1,400.00 Northwest Wesley Foundation
 1,900.00 Northwestern Wesley Foundation
 900.00 Tulane Wesley Foundation

(Editor's note: Report No. 2 were certain nominations for Board of Trustees. See lists of trustees in journal).

TOWN AND COUNTRYReport of Commission

The following report is given in two parts: (1) the accomplishments of the past year and (2) the recommendations for the coming year.

I. Accomplishments or achievements of the conference year 1963-64

1. A delegation of 24 laymen and ministers represented your Town & Country Commission at the Fifth National Town & Country Conference which met in Minneapolis, Minnesota, July 9-12, 1963.
2. A compiled report of all lectures and sessions of this Conference were printed and distributed to the leaders of our Boards and Agencies of the Conference as well as to the Bishop and his Cabinet.
3. The Town & Country Commission has begun work on compiling a permanent file of abandoned Methodist church property within this annual conference.
4. The Town & Country Commission has begun work on compiling a permanent file of photostatic copies of all Methodist property of the Louisiana Conference of the South Central Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church. At present this work is being carried on for Allen and Rapides Parishes.

5. The Town & Country Commission for the past two years has printed a list of some basic equipment and furnishings for parsonages as well as suggestions for the improvement of church grounds. This list has appeared in the Conference Journal.
6. The Town & Country Commission has continued its program of presenting awards of recognition to the outstanding church of the year from each district. A compiled list of all local churches participating in this program will be ready for distribution at the coming annual conference. These churches will be recognized on the floor of annual conference this coming session.
7. The Town & Country Commission is again sponsoring another attractive and informative display which will appear at this coming session of the annual conference. The Pine Grove Methodist Church of the Baton Rouge District has been chosen as the outstanding small local church of the past year.

II. Recommendations for the coming year:

1. That the Town & Country Commission lend full support to the Bishop and the Cabinet in establishing larger parish ministries in this annual conference.
2. That the Town & Country Commission sponsor an annual conference workshop giving special emphasis on the larger parish and group ministry. That this workshop be held sometime in the fall of 1964. That trained and experienced leaders be obtained as resource persons for this workshop.
3. That the Board of Missions of this annual conference designate Rural Life Sunday as an opportunity to support a Rural Advance Special. Funds raised from this Special would make possible a Rural Worker or a Church and Country Worker to serve in needed areas.
4. That the Town & Country Commission recommend that all Town & Country churches study the booklet entitled "Foundations of Christian Teaching in Methodist Churches" in preparation for using the new curriculum material for children to be ready September, 1964, "Christian Studies for Methodist Children."
5. That the Town & Country Commission set up Awards of Recognition for one outstanding rural church from each of the eight districts of annual conference.

6. That the Town & Country Commission revise its list of parsonage standards and equipment and that these be printed in pamphlet form to be distributed by the Area Council Office.
7. That the Town & Country Commission consider the project of compiling a file of pictures and floor plans of new church design for town and country churches in this conference. These materials would be available for any church desiring same.

TELEVISION, RADIO AND FILM COMMISSION

Report of Commission

The Television, Radio & Film Commission is happy to advise you that The Methodist Series of the Protestant Hour conducted during June, July and August of 1963 was one of the best received in the history of The Protestant Hour. Dr. Robert E. Goodrich of the First Methodist Church in Dallas was speaker, and our own Centenary Choir provided the music for the entire Series. The fan mail indicates a great response to the program and is still continuing due to the program now being aired through the Armed Forces Overseas Network.

This year's series will feature Dr. Wallace Hamilton from the Southeastern Jurisdiction and will begin on August 16. The ministers of the Louisiana Conference have recently received their promotional materials for this and we hope each of you has ordered a supply for use in the local church.

We are also glad to advise that the additional programs of the children's series of BREAKTHRU are now being produced and will be available for our local television stations around the first of the year. Production had been suspended due to a shortage of money in the Television-Radio Ministry Fund. This fund, we are happy to report, is now showing an increase over the amount given to it last year and if the present trend continues General TRAFICO will be able to expand its field of radio and television coverages.

Plans are under discussion at the moment in General TRAFICO for the type of programming to be undertaken during the quadrennium. Many new fields will in all probability be entered into and it is hoped that more programs for your local radio and television stations will be available for use. One program has recently been handled experimentally in Ohio with such success that it will now be produced for general distribution throughout the Church. This is a radio program which will be made available to all of the ministers for use on local radio stations available to them. It is not a devotional or so-called religious program but will use the means of radio to introduce an interesting program with a religious background. It should be of great use to all of us in our local communities.

We still have available certain scholarships and financial assistance to any of our Louisiana ministers who will be interested in attending workshops or seminars. If any interested persons would contact me I will be happy to explain more in detail.

Respectfully submitted,
J. C. LOVE, Jr.

URBAN WORK

Report of Committee

The rise of the modern city has greatly complicated the task of the Church in the implementation of the Christian Gospel. Though millions of people live together today, more people are further from God than ever before. Indeed, while civilization resided chiefly in open country and in relatively small communities, people not only were more accessible to the clergyman but also were more amenable to the demands of Christianity. Vast urban change has swept most of this away. Men's need of God remains constant, yet to reach the individual in his prevailing condition and current environment poses a many-faceted problem. The church is in a new world.

A view of the urbanization of Louisiana alone will bear this out. In 1900 only 339,000 persons lived in cities numbering 5,000 or more. In 1960 over 1,565,000 persons lived in cities of 5,000 or more, and 2,063,606 in cities of 2,500 or more, which means that Louisiana is now 63.3 per cent urban.

Methodism has always gone where the people are. In meeting the challenge that is before us in the Louisiana Annual Conference, your Conference Committee on Urban Work makes the following recommendations:

1. That studies concerning the change and growth in cities over 100,000 population (New Orleans, Shreveport, and Baton Rouge) be made so as to alert the leadership in the local churches, districts and conference as to programs that must be devised to adapt or change the services of the church to meet changing conditions.

2. That the Urban Work Committee be enlarged so as to do a more effective work and that it become the channel through which the Annual Conference cooperates with the Department of City Work of the Division of National Missions in awakening the Annual Conference, its ministers and laity, to the urgency of the urban challenge and in developing leadership to meet this challenge.

3. That an Area Workshop on Urban Life be held in Louisiana during the 1964-68 Quadrennium, preferably after the National Urban Life Convocation in February, 1966, and that all urban communities of 10,000 or more send delegates to this Workshop. That the Conference Board of Missions promote attendance at the National Convocation in 1966.

4. That all of the churches of the Louisiana Annual Conference be urged to support the Inner City Parish in New Orleans by taking this project as one of their Conference Advance Specials. This is a pioneer project which demands the support of the entire Annual Conference. Last year only $1,500 was given as Advance Specials to this project, and a total of $8,000 is needed.

5. That the District Boards on Church Location and Buildings be alerted to the danger of selling properties in the central city and using the money for locating sites in suburban areas, thus rendering the church's ministry to the city dweller less effective.

6. That the new city film "The Newcomers" be purchased by the Board of Missions of the Annual Conference and that all churches in the Conference, urban and rural, study this film so as to be enlightened as to the problem of reaching the city dweller.

7. That the Annual Conference consider setting aside one of its evening programs during the 1965 session of the Annual Conference for the presentation of the Urban Work of the Conference.

Methodism in Louisiana needs to be awakened to the changes that are taking place in the population movements within the state and to the urbanization of the state. We are faced with great problems and great opportunities. But our greatest difficulty is the lack of awareness that reaching the urban dweller for Christ and His Church is everybody's responsibility. It demands the moral and financial support of the entire Methodism of Louisiana to get the job done. This is the task to which your Urban Work Committee addresses itself and calls upon you to join with it in its attempt to make the Message and Ministry of Christ more effective in the city.

Respectfully submitted,

Chairman

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE AND WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

With the close of the quadrennium comes the challenge to evaluate the work of this four-year period — to give humble thanks for our successes, to learn from our weaknesses, to study trends which have developed, and to plan for the future. With this in mind, I shall attempt to review the highlights of the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild between the years 1960 and 1964, and point to some expectations for the future.

During these four years, the Woman's Society and Wesleyan Service Guild have carried on a vigorous program of missionary education and leadership training. Attendance at the Jurisdiction School of Missions is on a quota basis, and we have been successful in filling our quota of 22 or 23 each year. Also, the Wesleyan Service Guild has been well represented at the Jurisdiction Guild Weekend.

Our own well-organized and well planned Conference School of Missions has had an average attendance of 342 during the quadrennium, with from 90.5 per cent to 98.2 per cent of those enrolled in classes receiving Board of Education credit. The average yearly sale of literature at the School has been $1,272.00, a sum which does not include the amount purchased by Guild members at their week end. We are grateful for the privilege of holding our School at Centenary College and for the courtesies extended to us by the School officials.

While the School of Missions is open to all who wish to come, it is usually composed of persons selected by local Societies and Guilds, plus district and conference officers. However, approximately 2/3 of the societies are not reached in the School of Missions. To supplement the training provided in the School, one-day district meetings, known as Educational Seminars, have been held in each district. In 1963, 73.5 per cent of the local Societies were represented in this type of training agency.

We believe that the real strength of an activity or program lies in its acceptance in the local Society or Guild. During the quadrennium, there has been a steady increase in the number of study classes conducted by local groups with an increasing number of members participating. The total number of classes increased from 693, in 1960-61, to 899 in 1963-64, with about one third of these classes achieving Jurisdiction Recognition, our highest standard of excellence for study.

There has been a growing interest in, and use of, the Church-wide study (to be known, hereafter, as the Methodist Mission Study) and a wider use of the studies approved by the Woman's Division in a church-wide situation. We are indebted to, and grateful to, the many pastors who, from year to year, teach classes for local societies, and who continually support us in our total missionary program. We pray for your continued help and encouragement in the years ahead.

Two conference-wide training periods for District officers have been held during the quadrennium. In these two-day training periods, conference and district officers have discussed office responsibility and shared methods of procedure. In like manner, training days for local officers have been held within the local groups, in zones, or in district meetings.

For the first time, we shall hold a Conference officer Orientation on July 8. This will be a time when newly elected conference officers can have personal conferences with their out-going counterparts. It will also provide an opportunity for all the conference officers — those now in office, those completing their terms, and those newly elected to share mutually helpful information and recommend goals for the new quadrennium.

In the area of training, the Society and Guild will undertake a new type of itineration of a trained worker to help local groups. In October of this year, Miss Maryruth Nickels will come into the conference for a month. She will go on a planned schedule into every district, meeting informally with small groups in an effort to bring her skill and knowledge to bear on the needs of the groups involved. We believe this type of field work will be of special value in encouraging small groups who feel that, because of small memberships, they are inadequate for the large program of the Woman's Society. Again, the assistance of the pastor will be of inestimable value if Miss Nickels would come into your Church or community.

If financial support can be considered a measure of vitality, the Woman's Society and Wesleyan Service Guild are in a fairly healthy condition. The pledge to missions has increased from $109,075.00 in 1960-61, to $121,436.00 in 1963-64. However, the amount paid on pledge has shown some decrease — from $125,420.39 in 1960-61, to $123,161.81 in 1963-64 — or a decrease of $2,258.57. In each year, the pledge has been overpaid, but in slightly decreasing amounts as the pledge increased. The indications are that we are about to reach our capacity pledge, unless the downward trend in membership is changed and unless many women, who have kept their pledges at the same level for a long period of years, reconsider their financial stewardship to the Woman's Society and Wesleyan Service Guild. Our total giving to the Woman's Division has averaged about $155,-500 each year of the quadrennium, making a total for the four year period of approximately $622,000.00. This total giving includes giving on pledge, Supply Work, A Call to Prayer and Self-Denial, and Supplementary Gifts.

Despite the decrease in membership, the Conference Society and Guild have approved a pledge of $138,610.00 for 1964-65. This represents an 11 per cent increase over our pledge given for 1962-63, and is a part of the plan to increase our giving on pledge by 25 per cent over the two year period of the 25th Anniversary Observation of the Woman's Society and Guild. It is estimated that if only 10,000 of the approximately 15,000 members of the Louisiana Conference Woman's Society and Guild would give a penny a day for 300 days of the year, over and above their regular pledges, the increase would amount to $30,000 in one year.

Our women have been provided with special banks for this penny-a-day giving and it is hoped that each day this "smallest coin of the realm" can be placed in a bank with a prayer of thankfulness for the abundance of spiritual and material blessings which are ours. This is not an effort to measure our gratitude in terms of pennies, but rather to provide a basis for increased giving in which every Society and Guild member can participate.

Membership continues to be a matter of major concern. During the quadrennium, the Woman's Society has lost 549 members, and the Wesleyan Service Guild has lost 255, though both groups showed an increase in the last reporting period of this conference year—from November, 1963 through May 1964. Our concern is not so much for numbers, per se, but that a larger proportion of Methodist women shall know the enriching experience that membership in the Society and Guild can bring. We recognize the grave responsibility this places on local groups to see that their programs and activities are meaningful and relevant to women, who are experiencing many changes in the roles they play in society.

The increase in membership shown in the last reporting period, while not enough to offset the net loss for the year, is a source of encouragement. Almost all of the 119 new members, shown as a net increase, joined as a result of a program of visitation carried on throughout the conference. By no means all of the societies and guilds participated, but where the suggested plan of study and visitation was carried out, beneficial results were realized in the form of new members, a better informed membership, inactive members brought into the circle of concern and the Woman's Society and Guild lifted to the attention of the entire church.

That 117 churches in the Louisiana Conference still do not have a Woman's Society or Guild is another serious challenge to us. Now that those churches where a District member has been enrolled can no longer be counted as "organized," the number will become even larger. Again, we appeal to the local pastors and district superintendents to help us organize these churches into single church organizations or into large Societies and Guilds.

During the quadrennium, three new ventures in the area of recruitment and missionary education of youth were undertaken. In 1961, the first Youth Banquet was held during the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Society, with an attendance of 160 youth and their leaders. This plan has been continued each year, with a speaker or program of special interest to young people. Attendance has increased each year, indicating growing interest.

Also, in 1961, 24 selected girls — 3 from each district — were included in the School of Missions. This proved to be a rewarding experience for the girls as well as for the adults. The young people participated in classes and Bible hour in the regular School program, in addition to the special features planned especially for them. This program was continued through the 1963 school, but, because of limited facilities, it is not planned for the 1964 school.

The successful out-of-state mission tours for youth have been sponsored, planned, and underwritten financially by the Woman's Society. A third tour is planned for this summer — July 21-31, with Mr. and Mrs. John Oldham, of Baton Rouge, as directors. The cost will be $75.00, which will include travel, room, and meals for the 10-day period. These missions tours give young people an opportunity to see, first hand, the Methodist Church at work on the mission field. In the two previous years, the tours have traveled east. This year, the group will go west, traveling through Texas and Oklahoma.

In addition to these new undertakings, we have continued to cooperate in sending young people to the Youth Section of the Missionary Conference at Mt. Sequoyah.

This spring the Woman's Society and Wesleyan Service Guild held very successful Annual Meetings in Lafayette. Featured speakers at the meetings were Bishop Aubrey Walton, Dr. Vela Cleveland, missionary to India, and Mrs. Glenn Laskey, member of the Board of Missions. Miss Louise Killingsworth, missionary to Malaya, also spoke to the Woman's Society meeting. A total of 1,087 persons attended both meetings — 848 were in the Woman's Society and 239 in the Guild. This number included delegates, visitors, guests, and youth. We were privileged to have a large group of ministers and district superintendents to share in our meeting. For this we were both grateful and proud.

On January 19, of this year, the observance of the 25th Anniversary of the Woman's Society and Guild was officially launched in local churches. We are grateful for the cooperation given us by Bishop Walton, the District Superintendents, and local pastors in making this special observance a memorable occasion. The anniversary celebration will continue through May, 1966.

As we look to the future, we are aware that this 1964-68 quadrennium will be one of transition and change, often involving times of testing. The structural changes in the Board of Missions will have very little effect, if any, on local Societies and Guild either in finances or program. However, there will be changes in terminology, some redefining of office responsibility, a new plan in reporting, a closer cooperation in the total church program. A new statement of Purpose for the Woman's Society and Guild, approved by the General Conference, unites the two groups under one purpose, provides for more flexibility in this time of change, and places emphasis on the basic purpose of bring all Methodist women into a more vital relationship with God.

It is our hope that in this new quadrennium, we shall reverse the trend in membership loss by becoming better informed and more enthusiastic members ourselves; that more women will know the joy and rich rewards of serving in district and conference responsibilities. At this point, the pastors can be a source of great help by encouraging capable women in their churches to share their skills and knowledge with a larger group. I know of no conference or district officer who does not continue to work actively in her local church. It is a matter of pride that women who are active in the Society and Guild are, for the most part, equally active in the total program in the local church, serving as Church School teachers, in administrative positions, and on boards and commissions.

Further, it is our prayer that in these years when we shall inevitably face some difficult situations and decisions, we shall come to a new awareness of God's working in our midst, and that we shall have such an abundance of His Grace that we shall be able to live worthy of the name Christian.

It is the privilege and responsibility of the Conference President of the Woman's Society, to serve on several boards and agencies of the Annual Conference. In each case, I have tried to be an active participant, to represent the interest of the Woman's Society and Guild, but, in equal measure, to alert the women to their responsibilities relative to church boards and commissions at all levels.

In closing, I want to express my appreciation to this Annual Conference and to those persons, who, by their vote, made it possible for me to sit as one of your delegates to the General Conference and to the forthcoming Jurisdictional Conference. I was one of 87 women delegates out of the total of 856. Though much in the minority and seldom heard on the conference floor, I believe there were no delegates who tried more conscientiously than the women to discharge their responsibilities both in committees and plenary sessions. I am deeply grateful for having been a part of this great legislative and policy making body of our church, and I am more proud than ever to claim the name "Methodist."

MRS. G. W. DAMERON, President,
Woman's Society of Christian Service

WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

Report No. 1 - General Items

The Commission on World Service and Finance is pleased to report that we had a better year this year over all; not as good as we had hoped, but we are thankful for the improvement. We were able to increase Conference payments on World Service by about $7,000, thereby overpaying our adjusted apportionment.

We must also report, however, that we were not able to pay in full the amounts previously allocated for the Conference Boards and agencies. Those affected by this cut have been most understanding and cooperative. With your cooperation, we are hopeful that this action will not be necessary again.

One of the major programs adopted by the General Conference was the $3,000,000 increase in World Service. The General Commission on World Service and Finance has apportioned this to every Area and Annual Conference on a set decimal (no adjusted decimal or apportionment is being used as in the past quadrennium). This means that our Conference has been asked for a 52 per cent increase, going from $141,381 to $215,950. We recommend the full acceptance and apportionment of this amount to the local churches. We remind the churches that such increases are already reflected in the apportionments for 1964-65 issued by this Commission.

We call to your attention that in the light of the fact that the World Service apportionment is combined with the Conference Benevolence program, this percentage increase of 52 per cent on World Service is not reflected in an over-all 52 per cent increase. In fact, the over-all increase amounts to only a little over 8 per cent. The explanation for this is that the Commission is recommending the transfer of funds for the Area Council from the Benevolence Program to the Conference Administration Fund.

As we do this, the Conference needs to be reminded that though the Conference Administration Fund now takes a jump to $85,000.00, more than twice what was paid this year, it is not because the Area Council is getting more money for its operation. Actually, the Area Council will be receiving almost $2,400.00 less for its budget this coming year.

The Area Council was established to promote the program of every Board, Commission and agency of the Conference. In order that the Council may be most effective, it is imperative that each Board, Commission and agency use the staff and the facilities of the Council whenever possible. Only by doing this to the fullest extent, can we avoid duplication of effort and equipment.

We remind the Conference and its agencies that no financial appeal, whether by Conference or institutional interests, shall be made without the approval of this Commission, unless otherwise excepted. (See Par. 810, 811 of the 1960 Discipline).

We remind all ministers and churches that remittances for World Service and Conference Benevolences and Ministerial Claims shall be made monthly, if practical, but at least quarterly to the Conference Treasurer. (Par. 804, 823 of 1960 Discipline).

The Commission recommends that the Louisiana Annual Conference establish its fiscal year to be from June 1 to May 31, and that all Conference reports and payments be made in full to the Conference Statistician and Treasurer by May 15 of the Conference year. We authorize the Conference Treasurer to close his books annually on May 15, accepting only such reports as are postmarked by midnight of that date.

It is recommended that the First National Bank of Ruston, La., be designated as the Official Depository for all funds of the Louisiana Annual Conference.

We recommend that Pastors and laymen call to the attention of their members and friends the stewardship approach to Christian giving in regard to a Christian will. "Remember the Church in your Will" should be given special meaning as it brings to mind the institutions related to the Annual Conference and General Boards and agencies of The Methodist Church. We suggest a local church committee on Wills and Legacies to work with and secure information and guidance from the Conference Director of Wills and Legacies, Mr. Voris King, and from the Committee on Wills, Bequests, and Gifts of the Council on World Service and Finance. A report from Mr. King suggests the following:

"I am hoping that we can start a program in the Louisiana Conference which could be entitled 'Will Power'. I would urge that all of the churches which have not established a committee on Wills and Bequests do so for this coming year and that we launch on a state-wide program which will be captioned 'Will Power' in an attempt to urge as many people as possible to leave a bequest, no matter whether large or small to the church. This money could be designated for any purpose which the donor wishes to specify.

I want to thank Bishop Walton for appointing me to serve in this capacity during this past year and to thank those churches which have worked diligently on this program."

The Commission recommends the continuation of the system of apportionments on the decimal plan (for details, see the Conference Rules in the Conference Journal). The decimal shall be applied to the following Conference items: (1) World Service and Conference

Benevolences, (2) Board of Pensions, (3) District Superintendents Fund, (4) Episcopal Fund (which, by action of the General Conference, is an amount equal to two per cent of the total pastor's salaries of the Louisiana Annual Conference), (5) Minimum Salary Fund, (6) Annual Conference Administration Fund, (7) General Conference Fund, (8) Jurisdictional Conference Fund, (9) Radio and TV Fund, (10) Inter-denominational Cooperation Fund, (11) Temporary General Aid Fund.

The attention of the Conference is urgently called to the importance of exercising extreme care in filling out Conference reports, particularly in regard to financial items. In the light of the fact that one of the factors used in figuring the decimal is the church's current expenses, we suggest that a careful review be made of the items making up these expenses so that only current expenses will be reported as such. In this regard, a committee is being set up to give guidance to the local treasurer, pastor, or church business manager as to what items should be included under the Current Expense and the Church School columns in the Annual Report.

WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

Report No. 2

In order to strengthen the program of Lay Activities, we urge the District Stewards in each District to budget funds for the use of the District Lay Leader, for carrying out the District program and for attending meetings of the Conference Board.

In accordance with the action of the General Conference, we recommend that an amount equal to $1.00 per member be paid by each local church for the support of Centenary College, and that an amount of $1.00 per member likewise be paid for the support of the Wesley Foundation. We further recommend that the churches give hearty support to the financial campaign for the support of Centenary College and the Wesley Foundation-LSU system this fall.

We recommend that the Board of Directors of The Methodist Home Hospital be granted the privilege of presenting the Maintenance Budget of the Home to each local church with a suggested amount of 4 per cent of the pastor's salary to be raised by that church; with the suggestion that Christmas Sunday, December 20, 1964, be designated as Methodist Home Hospital Sunday, and that the offering for maintenance be received on that day, unless otherwise planned by the local church.

We also recommend that the Louisiana Moral and Civic Foundation be given moral and financial support and every opportunity to present its cause to the local church. A suggested amount of 25 cents per member has been made for its support.

We recommend that the Louisiana Annual Conference undertake to raise an amount of $10 per pastoral charge for the support of the Western Methodist Assembly at Mount Sequoyah. Each District is to raise the amount on the basis of the total number of charges in the District, and the District Superintendent is to be responsible for raising this money.

We recommend that the month of November be designated as Retired Ministers' Homes month, and that a Sunday in that month be designated as Retired Ministers' Homes Sunday at which time an offering is to be received for the support of the work (perhaps the Communion offering for November could be so designated).

We recommend that the Methodist people in Louisiana give loyal and hearty support to the Conference project of building a Methodist Hospital in New Orleans.

We highly recommend a continued emphasis by all the churches on Advance Specials, both General and Conference, asking, however, that all churches pay in full their World Service and Conference Benevolence apportionment before appropriating funds for these projects. We must all understand that World Service and Conference Benevolence is the foundation for all other programs in the field of Missions.

We further recommend that all churches give wholehearted support to the Emergency Advance Special for raising funds for Lydia E. Patterson Capital Funds Campaign.

WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

Report No. 3

The Commission on World Service and Finance is happy to nominate the Reverend J. E. Hearn to the Office of Conference Treasurer, and wishes in this report to commend him for 14 years of continuous service as Treasurer, and 24 years as Conference Statistician, plus 10 additional years as an Assistant Statistician. With the adoption of this section of our report, we call for a standing vote of appreciation for his service to the cause of Christ and His Church in this capacity these many years.

We recommend that the Conference Treasurer be paid a salary of $6,000.00, and that he be paid $1,800.00 for parsonage and office space.

We recommend that the Conference accept the bid of the firm of Scanland's, Incorporated for the printing, wrapping, and addressing of 2200 copies of the Conference Journal at a cost of $2825.00, plus any extra pages above 294 at a cost of $8.40 per page, or if fewer pages, $8.40 per page less. Extra copies of the Journal may be ordered at $1.00 through the Conference Secretary, if done so immediately after Conference. We further recommend that the Secretary of the Annual Conference serve as the Editor of the Conference Journal, and he is authorized to eliminate detailed financial and audit reports, including instead a statement indicating where the detailed report is filed.

In the light of the above-noted financial needs and others for actual Conference Administration, we recommend that the "Annual Conference Administration Fund" for 1964-65 be $85,000.00.

It is pointed out that this amount has been apportioned to the local church for payment during the 1964-65 Conference year. In the case of the Area Council, the amount thus collected will be available for its expense during the 1965-66 Conference year, except for $4,175.00 which is needed to fund the Council's 1964-65 Budget. The Fund is broken down as follows:

Area Council
(for 1965-66)	$60,825.00
(for 1964-65)	4,175.00
Salary of Treasurer	6,000.00
Office and Parsonage Rent	1,800.00
Office Expense	1,500.00
Editor of the Conference Journal—
Expense and Honorarium	500.00
Conference Journal—
(printing, wrapping and mailing)	2,900.00
Camp Brewer—Maintenance	1,000.00
Payment on Loan for Episcopal Residence	2,500.00
Annual Conference Entertainment	500.00

Decimal System Expense	400.00
Contingency	2,900.00

May we remind each minister and lay delegate that if we are to have the full program of the Church promoted by the Area Council, it is imperative that the Annual Conference Administration Fund be collected in full. With proper explanation to the local church officials, we are confident that this can be accomplished.

In regard to the Pastor's Expense Account and Utilities Expense, the Commission recommends to the Louisiana Annual Conference that (1) permission be granted to the pastoral charge to pay an amount not to exceed $1200.00 as a Pastor's Expense Account, provided that the salary set by the Fourth Quarterly Conference be maintained and that in no event a charge be allowed to reduce its pastoral salary in order to raise the expense account; and (2) permission be granted to the pastoral charge to pay an amount not to exceed $600.00 as Utilities Expense, provided that the salaries not be reduced below the 1963-64 level. Such payments are to be reported as the Treasurer directs.

In order to comply with Federal Income Tax regulations, we recommend that Utilities on Bishop's residence, District Parsonages, and Parsonages used by the Area Director and Ministerial Associate, and the Conference Treasurer be considered a part of their salary as a "Housing Allowance."

The percentage of the Episcopal Fund is an amount equal to two per cent of the salary or salaries paid the pastor or pastors serving in the Louisiana Annual Conference. The same is to be computed on the preceding year for the succeeding year, and is apportioned to the Churches on the Decimal Plan.

The Treasurer of the Conference is hereby authorized to pay each District Superintendent an annual salary of $9,000.00 and an expense account of $3,000.00. He is further authorized to pay each District Superintendent $750.00 at the end of the month of service, as salary, and $250.00 at the end of the month for expenses. He is also authorized to pay up to $1,000.00 from the Fund for extra travel to Cabinet meetings, and up to $500.00 for telephone calls involving appointments.

It is recommended that each District make available an additional amount of not less than $600.00 and not more than $3,000.00 as an Office and Secretarial Expense Fund to be drawn upon by the District Superintendent after approval by the District Stewards.

The Commission reminds all Agencies, Boards, Commissions and Committees that they are expected to submit a financial statement at the end of each Conference year, together with plans, programs, and askings for the coming year. A preliminary report will be requested by the Commission some time in April. A final report will be expected within 30 days of the close of the Annual Conference using a format to be provided by the Commission. Also, the Commission requests that a list of all investments and returns therefrom be submitted to the Commission and to the Conference annually.

WORSHIP

Report of Commission

The Commission on Worship concentrated its efforts this year on the Workshop on Worship and Church Music which was held April 10-11 in New Orleans, in cooperation with the Louisiana Chapter of the National Fellowship of Methodist Musicians, and the New Orleans District. We are happy to report that this Workshop, which we expect will become an annual feature of our conference calendar, was well attended (with a registration of 125) and rewarding to the pastors, commission chairmen and church musicians attending. Out-of-state leaders for this Workshop were: Dean Joe Quillian of Perkins School of Theology, a member of the General Commission on Worship and the Hymnal Revision Committee; Dr. Lloyd Pfautsch, Director of Choral Activities at Southern Methodist University; and Dr. Harald Rohlig, Head of the Music Department at Huntingdon College, Montgomery, Alabama.

We wish to commend the Board of Managers of the Pastors'

School for the inclusion of a course in worship in the school this summer.

We commend Bishop Aubrey G. Walton and the conference planning committee for the inclusion this year of the Communion Service in the Annual Conference sessions. The suggestion made most often to the Commission concerned the need for more meaningful services of worship at Annual Conference, and we feel that this is the first step in that direction.

We recommend that there be organized in every church a Commission on Worship, and that local churches anticipate the publication of the new Hymnal in late 1965 and provide the necessary funds for the purchase of copies of this excellent worship resource for their people.

To the Annual Conference Commission on Worship for the quadrennium 1964-1968, we recommend: continued support for the annual Workshop on Worship and Church Music, emphasis on the improvement of worship in local churches through district and sub-district workshops under the direction of the District Secretaries of Worship and District Councils, and the publication of interpretative brochures on such subjects as baptism, marriage, confirmation and the funeral.

We recommend that the District Secretaries of Worship in the several districts be added to the list of ex-officio members of the Annual Conference Commission on Worship (See report No. 2, 1962-63, for complete description of the membership of the Commission.) We further recommend that, wherever possible, the person named as District Secretary be the ministerial or the lay member of the Commission from that district, in order to prevent the Commission growing to excessive size.

Finally, we wish to thank the many ministers and laymen of the conference who have offered suggestions and encouragement to the Commission in the first quardennium of its work in this area of worship, which concerns that which is basic to all else the Church is and does.

JOSEPH MARTIN ALFORD

Joseph Martin Alford was born in Washington Parish, Louisiana, November 9, 1870 and died in Natchitoches, Louisiana, September 14, 1963, thus lacking less than two months of living ninety-three years. He was married in September, 1900, to Miss Carrie Wieland who preceded him to heaven by less than a year. He is survived by one son, Edgar E. Alford, five daughters, Mrs. Morris Adger, (Carrie Mae), Mrs. A. R. Foye (Mary), Mrs. Drew Wilson (Gladys), Mrs. L. M. McClellan (Bertha), and Mrs. A. C. Masingill (Jo), one brother, Rev. Jason A. Alford and one sister, Mrs. Mattie Hollingsworth.

Brother Alford was admitted on trial into the Louisiana Annual Conference in December, 1895, and appointed to the Jordan Street Mission and Pine Hill in Shreveport. For the next two years he was appointed as a student in Johnston Collegiate Institute and Millsaps College. In January 1898 he was appointed to the Live Oak Circuit in the Baton Rouge District. The whole of his ministry was in the Louisiana Conference with the exception of two years, 1905-1907, when he transferred to the Mississippi Conference. Returning to Louisiana in 1907 he was appointed to the Baker Circuit. From that day until retirement in 1942, and for ten years thereafter, he and Mrs. Alford answered the call of the church and went cheerfully wherever they were sent to labor for the Master.

Brother Alford made a record in the field of evangelism that we might all seek to equal. In fifty-five years on trial, in full connection and as superannuate supply, he added a total of 1778 to the church on profession of faith for an average of 32 per year. Truly he was an evangel of the good news that Jesus saves.

Brother Alford loved the church and his brother ministers. Even in advanced years, when physical and mental debility held him in check, he still dreamed and talked of preaching. He was an inspiration to me during his last years for I had the privilege of serving as his pastor then. He always had a word of encouragement and a prayer for God's blessing for his pastor. He was happy over every success of the church and rejoiced over every new member.

Brother Alford loved to sing. Perhaps his favorite hymn was "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." And since he was himself such a friend of Jesus and Jesus was such a friend to him we can confidently sing of his going:

"O happy, happy soul
In ecstasies of praise,
Long as eternal ages roll
Thou seest thy Saviour's face."

REV. JOHN WILSON MAYNE

Rev. John Wilson Mayne was born February 6, 1884 at Van, Texas, son of Wesley F. Mayne and Georgia Lowrey Mayne. When he was five years old he expressed a desire to join the Methodist Church and a year later told his family that he was going to be a Methodist preacher.

He was following in the footsteps of his forebears. His father, Wesley Mayne, grandfather Samuel Mayne and grandfather J. W. Lowrey were all ministers in the Methodist Church.

John graduated from High School as valedictorian of his class at Lindale, Texas, and entered Southwestern University at Georgetown, Texas. He served Thorndale Circuit while in the University.

When he was 19 years old he surrendered to the call to preach the Gospel. He was licensed to preach June 1, 1903, and entered the Ministry on a trial basis in the Texas Conference November, 1903. For 53 years he carried the Banner of the Cross in many places to many people. His preaching was evangelistic and many were added to the Church wherever he proclaimed the Gospel of Christ. John's devotion to the Church and Christ's teachings were the predominant characteristics in his life.

On November 26, 1906 he married Miss Della Maybel Brundidge at Wills Point, Texas. For 56 years they labored together in the Lord's vineyard and thanked God daily for His blessings.

Reverend John W. Mayne took a special interest in the young men entering the Ministry. Among those who he felt very near to as they went out from congregations that he had served as pastor were: Bishop Angie Smith, and Bill Slack from Taylor, Texas; Ennis Hill from Brownwood, Texas; Ray Johnson and Lester Davenport from Weatherford, Texas; M. C. and Rosemary Cady, missionaries to Brazil from Lake Charles, Louisiana; and a cousin, Rev. Elmer Mayne and wife Ann, in the Texas Conference. He thought of them as his sons in the Gospel.

John had a splendid library, he had an insatiable desire for knowledge and was a tireless reader. When he retired he gave the larger part of his books to young ministers. He was truly a man of good will to all.

He never held a grudge and when an injury was inflicted it was forgiven before forgiveness was asked. It was often said by those who knew him best that he possessed a most forgiving spirit.

His sympathy was always with the burdened, the sorrowing, the discouraged and oppressed. No hour was too late, night too dark or road too long for John to answer a call for help, whether it be from friend or stranger.

The sincerity and nobility of his character, the purity of his motives were apparent to all who knew him. He was a man of peace, and was often requested by those who had misunderstandings and differences to settle, to advise together in these matters. He viewed all sides with unbiased judgement and a deep desire for justice to prevail.

During the railroad strike on the I. & G. N. in 1921 the town of Mart, Texas, which was a railroad division center, called for a mass meeting at the City Auditorium and selected John to be the speaker for the occasion. There were officials of railroad as well as Union members (on strike) in attendance. John spoke on "The Golden Rule," and both sides approved and violence was averted. Both sides respected and listened to the rule of Christ to "Do unto others as ye would men should do unto you".

John was faithful to every trust and responsibility which life presented to him. His Faith was undying and like St. Paul he knew whom he had believed and was persuaded that God was able to keep that which he had committed unto Him against that day.

Brother Mayne loved and trusted everyone, he believed there was a spark of the divine in every human heart and it was his purpose to nurture and fan into a flame that divine spark.

Among the charges Brother Mayne served were Grace Church (Houston), Dalhart, Canyon, Snyder, Graham, Taylor, Mart, Mulkey Memorial (Ft. Worth), First Church Weatherford, Ranger, Central Church (Brownwood), St. John's (Dallas), Kessler Park (Dallas), Meadowbrook (Ft. Worth), San Marcos, Texas. Gurdon, Arkansas. Arcadia, Simpson Memorial (Lake Charles), Vinton and Park Avenue (Shreveport), Louisiana. Farmington, New Mexico, on the Navajo reservation, where he baptised and received Little Chief into the Methodist Church. Little Chief was the last Chief of the Navajo tribe.

John retired June, 1954 and moved to Denver, Colorado, where he and Mrs. Mayne resided with their daughter until death claimed him to join the Heavenly Hosts and to meet the loved ones over there.

His favorite song was "I Love Thy Kingdom Lord" and his favorite poem "The Crystal Christ". His favorite flower was the "Easter Lily".

Death was no surprise to his family and friends, since he had been failing in health for some time. Brother Mayne died on June 15th, 1962. Funeral services were held June 18th in Westminster Methodist Church, by the Dr. Walter J. Boigegrain, the Pastor, assisted by Rev. Bronston M. Greenwood, pastor of Highlands Methodist Church. Interment was in Tower of Memories, Denver, Colorado.

Reverend Mayne had few hobbies or interest outside the Church other than being a leader in Community affairs of the cities in which his pastorate was located. He belonged to many organizations in this connection including Lions, Rotary, Kiwanis and Civitan. He served on numerous Commissions, boards, councils and committees in the various Conferences, including teaching in leadership training schools.

Brother Mayne is survived by his widow, Della M. Mayne. Son, Robert F. Mayne of Palo Alto, California. Daughter, Mrs. Jeanne M. George of Westminster, Colorado. Grandson Larry Mayne of Palo Alto, California and granddaughter Mrs. Janice Fajardo of Pasadena, California. Many nephews and nieces in Texas, and a host of friends in every place where he served as pastor.

Truly it may be said of him "that he walked humbly with his Lord".

Written by those who knew him best and loved him most,

The Mayne Family

FRANK P. MOSS, SR.

Reverend Frank P. Moss, Sr., was born February 17, 1877, at Uvalda, Georgia. He came to Louisiana to work as a civil engineer in 1900. He was married to Luella Boyd of Chestnut, Louisiana, August 2, 1903. The following children survive this union: Mrs. H. W. G. Golden and Mrs. J. C. Sartor, both of Shreveport; Mrs. W. B. Humble, of Calhoun, Louisiana; L. C. Moss of Dallas; J. B. Moss of Olympia, Washington; J. C. Moss of Houston, and Frank P. Moss, Jr., of Shreveport. Brother Moss' faithful and devoted companion of 46 years was called to her Eternal Home, November 4, 1949, and in 1951 he was married to Lela Carson of Winnfield, Louisiana, who survives him. She forgot herself in her devotion to him during his last months' illness.

Brother Moss answered the call to the ministry and became a Local Methodist Minister in 1908. He served in this relationship as an effective and dedicated pastor for 41 years. He retired from the active pastorate in 1949.

On April 30, 1964, the Master came and called him Home. He was ready to go!

It was a privilege and an inspiration to visit with him and to see the bright sparkle in his eyes. He loved the Church, he loved Christian fellowship, he loved his family, and he loved the Lord.

He has, no doubt, very clearly heard the Welcome: "Well done, good and faithful servant."

SAMUEL LEONIDAS RIGGS

Samuel Leonidas Riggs was born in New Iberia, Louisiana, May 3, 1872, the son of Samuel G. Riggs and Sarah E. Frend. He was descended from John Riggs of Southampton, England, who came to America in 1649. His great-grandfather, Abraham Riggs, served in the American Revolution and was wounded at the Battle of Brandywine in 1777. In 1800 the family moved from Edenton, North Carolina, to Iberia Parish, Louisiana.

At the age of eleven both his father and mother died and he moved to Monroe to live with an older brother. Here he worked long and hard hours in the family "truck-farming" business, developing a love of gardening that was to last all his life. Thus, he learned early the lessons of adversity.

He attended Centenary College when it was located in Jackson, Louisiana, paying his way by cutting wood and managing the dining hall. In 1893 he served as president of the student body, beginning a tradition carried on by his son, Leonard, in 1928, and his grandson, Leonard, Jr., in 1964.

After graduation he attended Moody Bible Institute in Chicago and came back to Louisiana to do evangelistic work in the Crowley and Greysdan areas of the state. It was while he was engaged in this work that he met Adah Olive Matthews of New Orleans, a charming young lady and accomplished musician. They were married in 1905 and to them was born one son Leonard M. Riggs.

In 1902 he joined the Louisiana Conference and served the following appointments: New Orleans Mission, 1902 - 04; DeRidder, 1904 - 06; Kentwood, 1906 - 08; St. Francisville, 1908 - 12; Oakdale, 1913; Selma, 1916; Bon Ami, 1917; Lake Arthur, 1917 - 20; Opelousas, 1920-24; Mooringsport, 1924-26; Cedar Grove, Shreveport 1926 - 28; superannuated 1928 because of ill health; Centenary College Book Store, 1929 - 45; Chaplain, Goodwill Industries, Shreveport, 1945 - 53.

As manager of the book store and post office at Centenary for fourteen years, "Brother" Riggs became the friend and spiritual adviser to hundreds of students, a living witness to them of the meaning of Christian character, goodness and love.

After a lingering illness he died on April 18, 1964 and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery in Shreveport. Dr. D. L. Dykes and Dr. B. R. Oliphint officiated for him:

The following prayer offered at his funeral sums up my remembrance and gratitude for him:

"For his unflagging devotion to the Master of his life; for his tireless energy in Christ's Commission, and that unquenchable vitality that sprang not from nature only but far more from union with his living Lord; for his fundamental integrity and modesty and humility of heart; for the gallantry of his courage, the fortitude of his faith; for the exuberance of his Christian conviction, the exhilaration of his Christian companionship, and the "wonder, love and praise" that made his daily Christian witness lyrical with gratitude; for all this we give Thee thanks.

For all his preaching and his pastorate; for all the weary ones he has refreshed, and lonely ones he has comforted; for all the doubting ones he brought through to faith; for all who are better men and women today because he crossed their path—O God, we give Thee thanks.

To Thee alone, O God, are known all the nameless, unrecorded and uncounted deeds of love and kindness which he wrought; the helping hand so freely given to others in trouble and distress. And in as much as death has no dominion over him, Thou wilt use him still in Thy glad service, where in thy presence there is fulness of joy."

THOMAS A. PITT

Thomas A. Pitt was born August 28, 1914, in Memphis, Tennessee. He died of cancer at age 49.

He is perhaps the first layman ever to be memorialized at the Louisiana Annual Conference. Mr. Pitt was associate director of the Louisiana Area Council of The Methodist Church, having found in this work the fulfillment of a "call to the ministry" which he had felt in his youth.

Tommy and Gladys Pitt moved to Shreveport from Monroe in June, 1963, when he accepted this position. He had been an executive with Weak's Supply Company of Monroe for many years, but resigned in order to devote full time to the work of the church.

Thomas A. Pitt and Miss Gladys Thomas of Shreveport were married in 1936. They moved to Monroe in 1939 and joined First Methodist Church there. They later become charter members of St. Paul's Methodist Church.

During 23 years in these churches, Mr. Pitt served as chairman of the official board, church lay leader, church-school superintendent, chairman of the commission on education, superintendent of adult and youth divisions, church-school teacher in adult and youth divisions, counselor for MYF groups, general chairman of Every Member Visitation, delegate to district and annual conferences, district steward, and certified lay speaker.

At the district level in church activities, he had been Monroe District lay leader, associate district lay leader, district trustee, member of the district Board of Missions, Committee on Church Locations, and Board of Directors of Wesley Foundation at Northeast State College. He had conducted numerous workshops on Methodist Men, lay speaking, 1000 Club, stewardship, etc. He had planned district retreats and had spoken at conference retreats. He was named "Layman of the Year" and presented the Monroe District Distinguished Layman's Award for 1962.

At the Louisiana Annual Conference in 1963, Mr. Pitt was named "Outstanding Layman of the Year" by the Conference Board of Lay Activities. He had been active on several conference boards. He had served as co-chairman of the Conference Board of Lay Activities, member of the policy committee of the 1000 Club, and conference Board of Missions. He was a member of the board of trustees of Glenwood Hospital in West Monroe, and treasurer of the hospital before moving to Shreveport.

In business and community activities he had served in a number of capacities. He was a member of the board of governors of the National Association of Electrical Distributors for four years; member of the board of directors of Petroleum Electric Supply Association; past president and director of the Monroe-West Monroe Sales Executives Club, and director of the West Monroe Rotary Club.

Tommy possessed every quality of radiant Christian character and integrity. He was brilliant, remarkably capable, and was doing a magnificent job for the church. He loved people and was ever the peacemaker. He would spend hours counseling and reconciling.

His face was always lighted with a shining smile, even to the end when his body was wracked with pain. Tommy Pitt never complained about anything, not even death. He was a happy man, full of the joy of serving Christ.

He was not sick very long, only six weeks. During the first two weeks of his illness, he gave a report at the Area Council meeting and conducted district workshops throughout the state. Only those closest to him knew that he had to take barbituates to bear the pain during those two weeks. When he entered the hospital on March 2, he only planned to take one day off from work. After two weeks of tests and suffering, he underwent surgery. It was several days later before the doctor told Tommy what he had found. Tommy wanted to live, but he faced death with a courageous smile on his face and a loving wife at his side.

Bishop Walton was with him just two hours after Tommy was told the nature of his illness. Tommy told the bishop that Jesus had come to see him that morning, and that He had been close enough to touch. He witnessed to the love of Christ from his hospital bed everyday, and he left this world with the words "God bless you everyone" on his lips.

Funeral services were conducted on April 3 by Bishop Aubrey G. Walton. He was assisted by Dr. J. Henry Bowdon, Area Council director; The Rev. John Kilpatrick, pastor of Mangum Memorial Methodist Church; Dr. Ben Oliphint, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church in Monroe; and Dr. Jolly B. Harper, Shreveport district superintendent. The rites were held at the Mangum Church in Shreveport.

Survivors are his widow; his mother, Mrs. T. L. Pitt of Memphis; one sister, Mrs. W. P. Appling of St. Louis, Missouri; and three brothers, the Rev. W. H. Pitt of Nashville, Tennessee; James B. Pitt of Atlanta, Georgia; and Frank A. Pitt of Memphis.

It is not possible for us to know or understand why this faithful and dedicated servant of God was taken by death. But we can remember that our Lord Jesus Christ had an even shorter ministry, yet He lives. It is up to us to keep Tommy Pitt alive by accomplishing for him all those dreams he had for The Methodist Church in Louisiana.

God bless the memory of this wonderful friend.

LONA M. WILSON

MRS. SPENCER J. McLEAN

Mrs. Agnes E. McLean, wife of the late Rev. Spencer J. McLean, slipped away to her eternal rest April 14, 1964. Mrs. McLean was born at French Settlement, La., April 8, 1892 and upon retirement she and her husband made their home in Baton Rouge where she resided at the time of her passing.

She and Brother McLean were married June 28, 1911 and through the years they were a devoted couple in the service of the Master. Mrs. McLean was a fine mother and a good minister's wife. She gave of herself untiringly and was always ready to do everything possible in helping her husband in his work. This did not mean, however, that she did not make a place for herself wherever they served for she was always loved and appreciated by everyone who knew her as a devoted wife, mother and servant of Christ.

Funeral service for Mrs. McLean was conducted by Rev. Barry Bailey, assisted by Dr. Bentley Sloane with interment in Resthaven Garden of Memory, Baton Rouge, La.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Aline Duples, Baton Rouge; three sons, Lee Vance McLean, Professor E. E. L. S. U. Baton Rouge, George Spencer, Supervisor, E. B. R. Parish School Board, Baton Rouge, and John Gaddis, Pastor, Grant Street Methodist Church, Wichita Falls, Texas; a sister, two brothers and three grandchildren.

Those of us who knew Mrs. McLean were blessed in having had that privilege and the world will be a better place because of the fine family she left behind to carry on the faith she nobly demonstrated in her every day life.

REV. A. JEROME CAIN

MRS. MINNS S. ROBERTSON

Dorothy Louise Galloway was born August 29, 1914 in the city of New Orleans, La., the Daughter of Dr. James Hervey Galloway and Nettie Louise Williams. Her parents moved to the country during her childhood, and she attended the elementary public schools in Pleasant Hill, La.

During a revival conducted by the Rev. Dan Kelly, in Pleasant Hill, Dorothy was impressed and was led by the Holy Spirit to commit her life to Christ and to his church, at an early age. The commitment abided throughout her life.

The family later moved to Baton Rouge, La., and there she attended and was graduated from high school. She then enrolled in the Louisiana State University.

It was there that the fruition of her dedication was realized. While a student at L. S. U. she met another student, Minns S. Robertson, who was committed to the Christian Ministry, and was in preparation for his life's work. The two were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, May 20, 1934, in Keener Memorial Methodist Church, Baton Rouge, La. To them were born six children:

Dorothy Ann, married to Jim Brown, Metairie, La.; Minns S. and James Wallace, both teaching in Port Sulphur high school; Floriene, married to Paul Stewart, Starksville, Miss., who is studying space aerodynamics; Paul, a student in Northeast State College, working for a construction company in New Orleans during the summer. Mary Catherine, at home with the father, in Columbia, La.

Her mother survives and is living in New Orleans, La. Also surviving are two brothers, Rev. B. A. Galloway, pastor of Rayne Memorial Methodist Church New Orleans, La. and Dr. Jim Galloway, in North Carolina; and a sister Nettie.

She was as a rose bud that unfurled its crimson petals to shed a sweet fragrance of faith and love upon all who walked with her in the garden of love. But, alas, the petals were stung by the dreaded pest and fell too soon. The sweet fragrance of her spirit did not fade, and her spirit adorned the garden for those who continued to walk there.

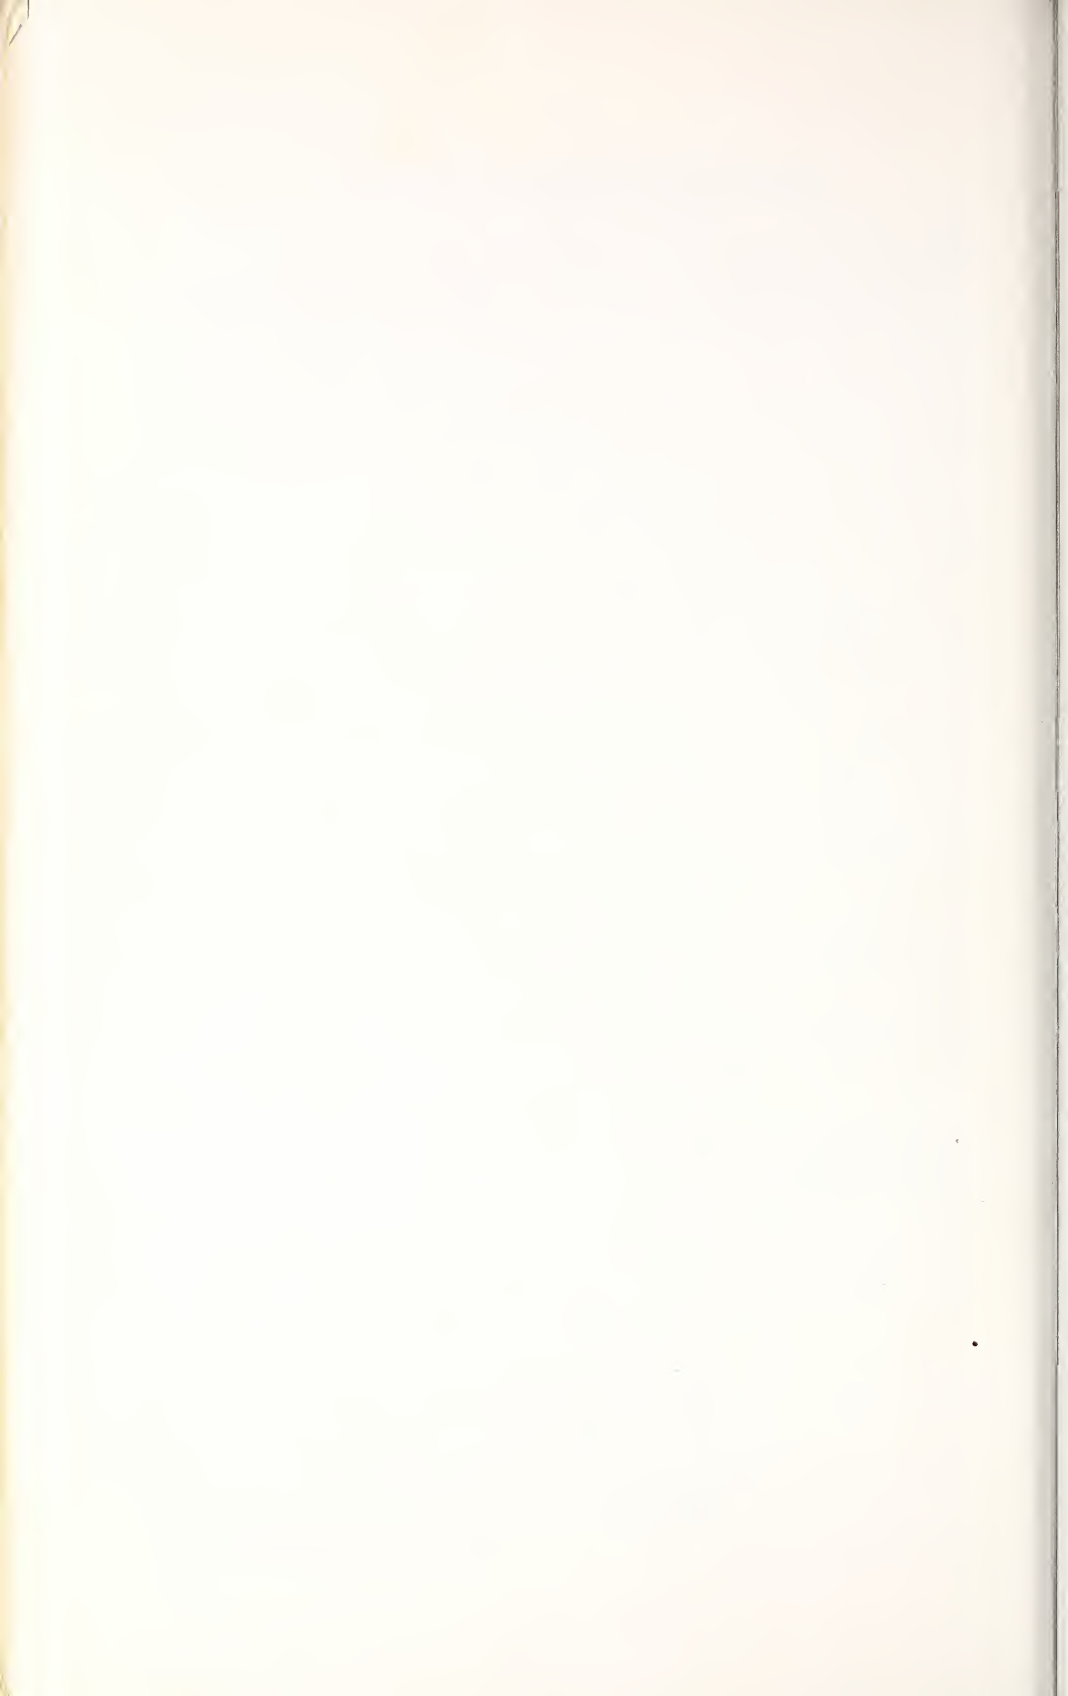

Her body was laid away in the "SEEGERS PLOT" in Columbia Hill Cemetery. Dorothy gave herself unselfishly to her husband and children. She shared with him all the joys and problems of the pastorate. She was ever mindful of the honor and privilege of being the wife and mother in the parsonage home. Her devotion to the family was beautiful to behold.

Dorothy's devotion to the church and the cause of Christ was pronounced to the end of her life. When the grim reaper was swinging the cycle, and the harvest days were drawing to a close, she would repeatedly say to her husband, "Do not neglect your work on my account. Do not disappoint the people. Go on with your church program." That is still a challenge to him.

During her well years, she was happy to give of her time and talents to the church through the programs of Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Wesleyan Service Guild, and the Church School. She was an ardent member and Officer of the Order of the Eastern Star. She loved people, and was pleased to extend her God-given abilities, which were many, for their benefit. Dorothy Robertson could share the spirit as expressed by J. Montgomery:

So when my latest breath
Shall rend the vail in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.
Knowing as I am known,
How shall I love that word,
and oft repeat before the throne,
"For ever with the Lord!"
